MRS. MYERS AND LOVER ESCAPE DEATH

Governor Folk Has Commuted Sentences

TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

As Myers Was Struggling with Wife's Lover, and Crying to Her for Aid, She Took a Razor and Slashed Him to Pieces.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 10.—The sentences of death imposed on Mrs. Aggie Myers, of Kansas City, and Frank Holtman, of Higginsville, Mo., who were convicted of having murdered the woman's husband, Clarence Myers, in 1904, were Monday commuted by Governor Folk to imprisonment for life.

They will at once be brought to the state penitentiary here.

Mrs. Myers is confined in the Clay county jail, at Liberty, and Holtman is confined in the Kansas City jail.

In a message to the secretary of state relative to the action in commuting the sentences, Governor Folk states that he believes that public morals will be better conserved by commuting the sentences of Mrs. Myers to life imprisonment, than by hanging her.

In the case of her accomplice, Frank Holtman, he said, similar facts to those in the Myers case exist, and for that reason, he ealso commuted Holtman's sentence to life imprisonment.

Liberty, Mo., April 10.—When told in her cell that Governor Folk had commuted her sentence of death to life imprisonment, Mrs. Aggie Myers smiled and then laughed for joy.

"I am so grateful to the governor," she exclaimed. "Of course, I have been hopeful of getting a new trial and feel sure if one could be obtained my innocence would be proven next time, for I am innocent. I cannot give up hope that my lawyers will yet be able to do something for me in that way, and the fact become known to the world that I am not guilty of the crime charged against me."

Anniversary of Vesuvius' Eruption.

Rome, April 10.—The anniversary of the disastrous eruption of Mount Vesuvius last year was marked Monday by two harmless earthquakes in Calabria, and huge religious processions in town around the volcano. The famous statue of the Madonna, believed by the people to have sweated during the calamity, was carried about by the clergy and local authorities and was followed by thousands of worshipers. The processional feast at Nocera Inferiore ended in a riot caused, it is said, by excitement over a report that another statue of the Madonna was opening and shutting its eyes. Police had to quell the disturbances.

Wealthy Widow Adjudged Insane.

Webb City, Mo., April 10.—As a result of brooding over being denied admission into Joplin society several years ago, when her husband, the late state Senator Thomas Connor, became suddenly rich from mining operations, Mrs. Conner was on Monday adjudged insane. Senator Connor died recently, leaving an estate valued at over $2,000,000.

Conference Will Last Several Days.

Berlin, April 10.—Five Americans who were appointed to superintend the observance of customs rules regarding exports from Europe to the United States, are conferring here as to the best way of dealing with the various manufacturing interests in different European countries, the conference will last several days.

Broom Plant Destroyed.

Amsterdam, N. Y., April 10.—The plant of the Amsterdam Broom company, the largest independent brush and broom concern in the country, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. Loss $50,000. William Sullivan, a member of the fire department, was instantly killed.

ISLE OF PINES BELONGS TO CUBA

Decision Rendered by United States Supreme Court.

Washington, April 10.—That the Isle of Pines is not American territory was officially and judicially declared Monday by the supreme court of the United States.

The decision was rendered in the famous case of Edward J. Peary vs. Nevada N. Stranahan, collector of the port at New York, and the opinion of the court was announced by Chief Justice Fuller, who said that up to the Paris treaty the Isle of Pines had been considered as an integral part of Cuba and that it could not be held to be covered by article 2 of that treaty, which included only islands in the vicinity of Porto Rico.

The case originated in connection with the importation of a few boxes of cigars by Pearcy in September, 1902, but its hearing by the court was from time to time postponed in the hope that the status of the island might be definitely fixed by legislation or diplomacy. The cigars were made in the Isle of Pines of tobacco grown there, and when they arrived, Pearcy refused to pay duty on the ground that they were of domestic origin. The collector thereupon seized them, and Pearcy appealed to the United States circuit court, where he secured no relief, as that court sustained a demurrer filed by the government, and dismissed the case. He promptly brought the case to the supreme court, by which the decree of the lower court was affirmed.

STOPS WORK ON SOUTHERN.

Its Inability to Negotiate Sale of Improvement Bonds.

Scottsboro, Ala., April 10.—Owing to the fact that the Southern railway has been unable to negotiate a sale of its improvements bonds, large contracts in northern Alabama and the southern part of Tennessee, are being suspended.

These include the extension of the Stevenson and Chattanooga branch, and the tunnel through Lookout mountain, at Cummins Gap.

The resident engineer and twelve assistants in charge of this work, have been withdrawn, and the monthly estimates for W. J. Oliver, the contractor, have been greatly reduced

It is reported in Scottsboo, that the company has cancelled its contract for the steel superstructure of the bridge across the Tennessee river at Otis island, and that the bridge company is to be paid 6 per cent of its contract with the cancellation.

Was Acquitted by Mistake.

Columbus, Ga., April 10.—A remarkable incident occurred Monday in the city court of Columbus, when a negro, "Sleepy" Glenn arraigned on the charge of vagrancy, was given his liberty through a curious error. A motion was made and carried in the jury room that a verdict of "guilty" be returned. The foreman in writing the verdict inadvertently made is "not guilty," and the verdict was so announced. The judge dismissed the jury, and when the author of the motion made his way to the judge, and explained hurriedly that the verdict as announced is not the one agreed upon, it was too late to rectify the mistake.

Deputy Sheriff Shot Down.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10—Deputy Sheriff John Roderick, of Centerville, Ala., was shot and instantly killed at a house near the Sipsey Lumber company plant, in Bibb county. Roderick and Sim Darden, a Tuscaloosa deputy, had gone to a house to arrest a man, named Redd, charged with burglary. As they approached, the door was thrown open and Roderick instantly killed. Darden was covered with pistols by three other men, and the guilty all got away.

He Shot Horse to Stop Him.

Montgomery, Ala., April 10.—Mrs. Bert Cobb of this city, was painfully wounded resulting from a runaway accident on Washington avenue. The negro lost control of the horse, and her husband, in an endeavor to stop the horse, shot him, without killing him. The infuriated horse ran into a telegraph pole, precipitating Mrs. Cobb, who was taken to a hospital for treatment. Her husband was not hurt.

TENNESSEE MOB THRASHES NEGRO

GAVE HIM A TERRIBLE FLOGGING

Negro Is Reported To Have Died from the Effects of His Treatment—He Is Said To Have Insulted White Man, Which Enraged the Mob.

Nashville, Tenn., April 10.—A dispatch from Huntington, Tenn., says that an enraged mob boarded a Louisville and Nashville train at Trezevant on Monday, seized the negro porter, and gave him a terrible beating from which he is reported to have ded.

The negro is said to have insulted a white man named DeWitt Bowder.

Newspaper Plant Destroyed.

Columbus, O., April 10.—The 6-story brick Ell-Mithoff building, on High street, a block north of the state house and occupied by the Evening Dispatch newspaper plant and the Hoster three-story building adjacent, were practically destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, entailing a loss estimated at $300,000. The Dispatch plant is water soaked and the upper floor, holding the engraving plant, is burned out and machinery damaged. The Dispatch estimates its loss at $150,000. It is believed that some of the presses and machines can be repaired. Fire Chief Lauer has ordered every one to keep away as the walls of the building are liable to fall at any time.

Saw It in a Paper; Dies in Hysterics.

Chicago, April 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune, from Evansville, Ind., says: Thrown into a state of nervous prostration by reading an account published in a newspaper of her supposed death, Mrs. Louis A. Dooley, aged 49, expired Monday night. Through an error the death of a woman of the same name was reported as having occurred in Mrs. Dooley's home, and as she read the story she fell from her chair to the floor. A physician was called, but was unable to learn the reason for Mrs. Dooley's colapse. She became rational later and after talking a few minutes, began to cry: "I am dead; I am dead. I saw is in the paper!" and died in hysterics.

Paroles Kansas Murderer.

Topeka, Kans., April 10.—Governor Hoch has, it is stated, authoritatively decided to parole "Wilde" Sells, who has served nearly twenty years in the Kansas penitentiary for the murder of his father, mother, sister and brother. The case has been a noted one. The murders were committed on March 7, 1888, the four persons having been cut and slashed in a horrible manner. Willie stoutly maintained his innocence. In defending Sells his attorneys argued that it would have been a physical impossibility for him to have committed the crime, as he was sickly and developed no more than a boy of 13 years.

Man Shot To Death.

Sandersville, Ga., April 10.—Turner Roughton shot and instantly killed Ben S. Jackson. Both men were prominent farmers near Davisboro. Roughton had shut up some cattle of Jackson's that had destroyed Roughton's crop. Jackson demanded their release. Roughton refused unless the damage was paid. Words followed. Jackson shot, but missed Roughton returned the fire, and killed Jackson. Roughton is in jail, having come to town and given himself up to the sheriff. He claims self-defense.

Prisoners for Atlanta.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—H. B. Wilson, Walter Wood and Charles Rogers, the noted yeggemen, were given fifteen months and two years and a half respectively in the Mocksville superior court, Davie county. They were charged with robbing the bank of Davie. The three prisoners were brought here from Atlanta and will be returned to that city.

SLAIN FOR SLAPPING HUSBAND.

Prominent New York Physician Accused of Murder.

New York, April 10.—Dr. Samuel S. Guy, a prominent dentist of Far Rockaway and for a number of years coroner of Queens Borough, is under arrest charged with the murder of his wife in their home.

The woman's body was found lying on the dining room floor with two bullet wounds in the breast. Dr. Guy was arrested as he was leaving the house and just as a servant came screaming from one of the doors and hysterically told a policeman that her mistress was dead.

The doctor came from a saloon near his residence and entered his home. It is alleged that he went to the kitchen and annoyed a servant for some minutes, finally being induced to leave the girl by his wife. The servant says that as husband and wife entered the dining room Mrs. Guy slapped his face. Immediately afterward the door closed and in a few minutes two shots startled the girl.

Dr. Guy walked to the hall, took down his overcoat and started out of the house. A policeman met him and asked him where he was going.

"Just to get a cigar," said the doctor, coolly.

A few seconds later the cries of the servant were heard and the doctor was promptly arrested.

LOUISIANA WINS NOTE TAX SUIT

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Loses in High Court.

Washington, April 10.—The constitutionality of the Louisiana law of 1898 making taxable in that state notes taken by non-residents on account of business transacted there, was brought into question in the case of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York, versus the city of New Orleans, which was decided by the supreme court of the United States in favor of the city, the opinion being by Justice Moody.

The suit grew out of an effort by the city to tax the company for $10,000 worth of credits on business transacted in the state which was resisted by the company on the ground that the notes were taxable only in New York, where they were held. The attempt of the authorities beyond the state and to take property without due process of law.

In announcing the court's opinion, Justice Moody said that the mere absence of the notes from the place of their origin did not deprive them of a taxable status in Louisiana. The effect was to uphold the state law.

Drove Strike Breakers Off.

Hamburg April 10.—Another attack on the substitute English longshoremen was made Monday night. Men unloading the steamer Lluse on returning from the ship found the way blocked by a cordon of strikers, who drove the strike breakers off with sticks and stones. One of the strikers fired a pistol at the fleeing Englishmen, wounding one of them in the thigh. The cargo congested of the harbor continues. Nearly 300 steamers and over 60 sailing vessels are waiting to discharge or take on cargo. Foreign longshoremen continue arriving here. Four hundred and eighty reached Hamburg Monday, but a great many of the Englishmen are returning h[illegible], over 300 having gone back to England since Saturday last.

Boy Confessed He Stole $1,600.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—R. W. Gray, the 17-year-old boy, who, on the 11th of last November, stole $1,460 from the Southern Express company at Salisbury, N. C., was caught in Buffalo, N. Y., and brought back to Salisbury. In his cell, young Gray made full confession of the theft and gave the story of his wanderings since the date of the robbery. He had been to South America, Canada and many other places.

Alleged Thief Identified.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10—A man giving his name as A. J. Southall, who was arrested in Augusta, was identified by means of pistols and overcoat by Charlotte officers as the man who broke into a Charlotte hardware store here last week and robbed it of a number of pistols, overcoat and six dollars.

GEORGIANS GO FOR IMMIGRANTS

Hoke Smith, Gunby Jordon and Major Williamson Leave.

THEY SAIL DIRECT TO BREMEN

Georgians Call at White House and Pay Their Respects to President. Resources of State To Be Advertised In Europe.

Washington, April 10.—The committee of Georgians who will visit Europe in the effort to turn some portion of the tide of foreign immigration to the south, left Washington Monday afternoon and sailed from New York Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II for Bremen.

They expect to visit Germany, France, northern Italy, Norway, Sweden and Scotland and study the immigration problem.

The party included Governor-elect Hoke Smith and wife; G. Gunby Jordan, president of the Georgia Immigration association, and his niece, Miss Burnett, of Columbus, and Major and Mrs. W. W. Williamson, of Savannah, Ga. They were accompanied as far as New York by J. A. Betjeman, of Albany, Ga.

The Georgians forming this special immigration commission called at the white house and talked with the president concerning the object of their trip, and the general purpose of their association. The president was outspoken in his approval and commendation of their plans and pledged the heartiest support of the administration in furthering their method of inducing southern immigration. He gave to Hoke Smith a letter of presentation to the United States ambassador at Berlin. The party also bore letters from the state department to other American representatives in Europe and letters from Charles A. Boynton, of Washington, D. C., and Melville E. Stone, of New York, to the Associated Press representatives in Europe.

According to present plans the whole time of the trip will not exceed one month. Eliminating the time consumed in the passage they will not be in Europe over two weeks. In this short period the visitors expect to get in touch with boat line officials, government officers, and the various sources through which emigrants may be solicited by advertisements throughout Europe.

They will explain that the southern states are the most desirable portion of the American union and believe that through the presentations they will make and the connections they will establish abroad the way will be paved for systematic and effective detail work in the future.

John A. Betjeman has secured from the North German Lloyd Steamship company the assurance that they will shortly institute a combination passenger and freightr service from Berlin direct to Savannah, with sailings once every three weeks. This was gratifying news to all the members of the commission and when it was mentioned to the president he declared enthusiastically that it was the most practical and effective plan that could possibly be devised.

The commission proposes to bring over the first ship load of immigrants in the early fall, just when workers are being needed to gather and market the cotton crop.

$100,000 Fire Loss.

Philadelphia, April 10.—One of the large buildings in the League Island navy yard, containing the saw mill, joiner shop and pattern shop, was almost destroyed by fire early Tuesday. Officers at the yard estimate the loss at between $70,000 and $100,000.

Nicarauga Take Honduran Consulate.

New Orleans, April 10.—Don Ramon Echamaretta, consul general of Nicarauga with headquarters here, Tuesday received a cablegram from his government directing him to take charge of the Honduran consulate in this city. The Honduran consul raised no objection.

MRS. MYERS AND LOVER ESCAPE DEATH

Governor Folk Has Commuted Sentences

TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

As Myers Was Struggling with Wife's Lover, and Crying to Her for Aid, She Took a Razor and Slashed Him to Pieces.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 10.—The sentences of death imposed on Mrs. Aggie Myers, of Kansas City, and Frank Holtman, of Higginsville, Mo., who were convicted of having murdered the woman's husband, Clarence Myers, in 1904, were Monday commuted by Governor Folk to imprisonment for life.

They will at once be brought to the state penitentiary here.

Mrs. Myers is confined in the Clay county jail, at Liberty, and Holtman is confined in the Kansas City jail.

In a message to the secretary of state relative to the action in commuting the sentences, Governor Folk states that he believes that public morals will be better conserved by commuting the sentences of Mrs. Myers to life imprisonment, than by hanging her.

In the case of her accomplice, Frank Holtman, he said, similar facts to those in the Myers case exist, and for that reason, he ealso commuted Holtman's sentence to life imprisonment.

Liberty, Mo., April 10.—When told in her cell that Governor Folk had commuted her sentence of death to life imprisonment, Mrs. Aggie Myers smiled and then laughed for joy.

"I am so grateful to the governor," she exclaimed. "Of course, I have been hopeful of getting a new trial and feel sure if one could be obtained my innocence would be proven next time, for I am innocent. I cannot give up hope that my lawyers will yet be able to do something for me in that way, and the fact become known to the world that I am not guilty of the crime charged against me."

Anniversary of Vesuvius' Eruption.

Rome, April 10.—The anniversary of the disastrous eruption of Mount Vesuvius last year was marked Monday by two harmless earthquakes in Calabria, and huge religious processions in town around the volcano. The famous statue of the Madonna, believed by the people to have sweated during the calamity, was carried about by the clergy and local authorities and was followed by thousands of worshipers. The processional feast at Nocera Inferiore ended in a riot caused, it is said, by excitement over a report that another statue of the Madonna was opening and shutting its eyes. Police had to quell the disturbances.

Wealthy Widow Adjudged Insane.

Webb City, Mo., April 10.—As a result of brooding over being denied admission into Joplin society several years ago, when her husband, the late state Senator Thomas Connor, became suddenly rich from mining operations, Mrs. Conner was on Monday adjudged insane. Senator Connor died recently, leaving an estate valued at over $2,000,000.

Conference Will Last Several Days.

Berlin, April 10.—Five Americans who were appointed to superintend the observance of customs rules regarding exports from Europe to the United States, are conferring here as to the best way of dealing with the various manufacturing interests in different European countries, the conference will last several days.

Broom Plant Destroyed.

Amsterdam, N. Y., April 10.—The plant of the Amsterdam Broom company, the largest independent brush and broom concern in the country, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. Loss $50,000. William Sullivan, a member of the fire department, was instantly killed.

ISLE OF PINES BELONGS TO CUBA

Decision Rendered by United States Supreme Court.

Washington, April 10.—That the Isle of Pines is not American territory was officially and judicially declared Monday by the supreme court of the United States.

The decision was rendered in the famous case of Edward J. Peary vs. Nevada N. Stranahan, collector of the port at New York, and the opinion of the court was announced by Chief Justice Fuller, who said that up to the Paris treaty the Isle of Pines had been considered as an integral part of Cuba and that it could not be held to be covered by article 2 of that treaty, which included only islands in the vicinity of Porto Rico.

The case originated in connection with the importation of a few boxes of cigars by Pearcy in September, 1903, but its hearing by the court was from time to time postponed in the hope that the status of the island might be definitely fixed by legislation or diplomacy. The cigars were made in the Isle of Pines of tobacco grown there, and when they arrived, Pearcy refused to pay duty on the ground that they were of domestic origin. The collector thereupon seized them, and Pearcy appealed to the United States circuit court, where he secured no relief, as that court sustained a demurrer filed by the government, and dismissed the case. He promptly brought the case to the supreme court, by which the decree of the lower court was affirmed.

STOPS WORK ON SOUTHERN.

Its Inability to Negotiate Sale of Improvement Bonds.

Scottsboro, Ala., April 10.—Owing to the fact that the Southern railway has been unable to negotiate a sale of its improvements bonds, large contracts in northern Alabama and the southern part of Tennessee, are being suspended.

These include the extension of the Stevenson and Chattanooga branch, and the tunnel through Lookout mountain, at Cummins Gap.

The resident engineer and twelve assistants in charge of this work, have been withdrawn, and the monthly estimates for W. J. Oliver, the contractor, have been greatly reduced

It is reported in Scottsboo, that the company has cancelled its contract for the steel superstructure of the bridge across the Tennessee river at Otis island, and that the bridge company is to be paid 6 per cent of its contract with the cancellation.

Was Acquitted by Mistake.

Columbus, Ga., April 10.—A remarkable incident occurred Monday in the city court of Columbus, when a negro, "Sleepy" Glenn arraigned on the charge of vagrancy, was given his liberty through a curious error. A motion was made and carried in the jury room that a verdict of "guilty" be returned. The foreman in writing the verdict inadvertently made is "not guilty," and the verdict was so announced. The judge dismissed the jury, and when the author of the motion made his way to the judge, and explained hurriedly that the verdict as announced is not the one agreed upon, it was too late to rectify the mistake.

Deputy Sheriff Shot Down.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10—Deputy Sheriff John Roderick, of Centerville, Ala., was shot and instantly killed at a house near the Sipsey Lumber company plant, in Bibb county. Roderick and Sim Darden, a Tuscaloosa deputy, had gone to a house to arrest a man, named Redd, charged with burglary. As they approached, the door was thrown open and Roderick instantly killed. Darden was covered with pistols by three other men, and the gullty all got away.

He Shot Horse to Stop Him.

Montgomery, Ala., April 10.—Mrs. Bert Cobb of this city, was painfully wounded resulting from a runaway accident on Washington avenue. The negro lost control of the horse, and her husband, in an endeavor to stop the horse, shot him, without killing him. The infuriated horse ran into a telegraph pole, precipitating Mrs. Cobb, who was taken to a hospital for treatment. Her husband was not hurt.

TENNESSEE MOB THRASHES NEGRO

GAVE HIM A TERRIBLE FLOGGING

Negro Is Reported To Have Died from the Effects of His Treatment—He Is Said To Have Insulted White Man, Which Enraged the Mob.

Nashville, Tenn., April 10.—A dispatch from Huntington, Tenn., says that an enraged mob boarded a Louisville and Nashville train at Trezevant on Monday, seized the negro porter, and gave him a terrible beating from which he is reported to have ded.

The negro is said to have insulted a white man named DeWitt Bowder.

Newspaper Plant Destroyed.

Columbus, O., April 10.—The 6-story brick Ell-Mithoff building, on High street, a block north of the state house and occupied by the Evening Dispatch newspaper plant and the Hester three-story building adjacent, were practically destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, entailing a loss estimated at $300,000. The Dispatch plant is water soaked and the upper floor, holding the engraving plant, is burned out and machinery damaged. The Dispatch estimates its loss at $150,000. It is believed that some of the presses and machines can be repaired. Fire Chief Lauer has ordered every one to keep away as the walls of the building are liable to fall at any time.

Saw It in a Paper; Dies in Hysterics.

Chicago, April 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune, from Evansville, Ind., says: Thrown into a state of nervous prostration by reading an account published in a newspaper of her supposed death, Mrs. Louis A. Dooley, aged 49, expired Monday night. Through an error the death of a woman of the same name was reported as having occurred in Mrs. Dooley's home, and as she read the story she fell from her chair to the floor. A physician was called, but was unable to learn the reason for Mrs. Dooley's colapse. She became rational later and after talking a few minutes, began to cry: "I am dead; I am dead. I saw is in the paper!" and died in hysterics.

Paroles Kansas Murderer.

Topeka, Kans., April 10.—Governor Hoch has, it is stated, authoritatively decided to parole "Wilde" Sells, who has served nearly twenty years in the Kansas penitentiary for the murder of his father, mother, sister and brother. The case has been a noted one. The murders were committed on March 7, 1888, the four persons having been cut and slashed in a horrible manner. Willie stoutly maintained his innocence. In defending Sells his attorneys argued that it would have been a physical impossibility for him to have committed the crime, as he was sickly and developed no more than a boy of 13 years.

Man Shot To Death.

Sandersville, Ga., April 10.—Turner Roughton shot and instantly killed Ben S. Jackson. Both men were prominent farmers near Davisboro. Roughton had shut up some cattle of Jackson's that had destroyed Roughton's crop. Jackson demanded their release. Roughton refused unless the damage was paid. Words followed. Jackson shot, but missed. Roughton returned the fire, and killed Jackson. Roughton is in jail, having come to town and given himself up to the sheriff. He claims self-defense.

SLAIN FOR SLAPPING HUSBAND.

Prominent New York Physician Accused of Murder.

New York, April 10.—Dr. Samuel S. Guy, a prominent dentist of Far Rockaway and for a number of years coroner of Queens Borough, is under arrest charged with the murder of his wife in their home.

The woman's body was found lying on the dining room floor with two bullet wounds in the breast. Dr. Guy was arrested as he was leaving the house and just as a servant came screaming from one of the doors and hysterically told a policeman that her mistress was dead.

The doctor came from a saloon near his residence and entered his home. It is alleged that he went to the kitchen and annoyed a servant for some minutes, finally being induced to leave the girl by his wife. The servant says that as husband and wife entered the dining room Mrs. Guy slapped his face. Immediately afterward the door closed and in a few minutes two shots startled the girl.

Dr. Guy walked to the hall, took down his overcoat and started out of the house. A policeman met him and asked him where he was going.

"Just to get a cigar," said the doctor, coolly.

A few seconds later the cries of the servant were heard and the doctor was promptly arrested.

LOUISIANA WINS NOTE-TAX SUIT

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Loses In High Court.

Washington, April 10.—The constitutionality of the Louisiana law of 1898 making taxable in that state notes taken by non-residents on account of business transacted there, was brought into question in the case of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York, versus the city of New Orleans, which was decided by the supreme court of the United States in favor of the city, the opinion being by Justice Moody.

The suit grew out of an effort by the city to tax the company for $10,000 worth of credits on business transacted in the state which was resisted by the company on the ground that the notes were taxable only in New York, where they were held. The attempt of the authorities beyond the state and to take property without due process of law.

In announcing the court's opinion, Justice Moody said that the mere absence of the notes from the place of their origin did not deprive them of a taxable status in Louisiana. The effect was to uphold the state law.

Drove Strike Breakers Off.

Hamburg April 10.—Another attack on the substitute English longshoremen was made Monday night. Men unloading the steamer Liuse on returning from the ship found the way blocked by a cordon of strikers, who drove the strike breakers off with sticks and stones. One of the strikers fired a pistol at the fleeing Englishmen, wounding one of them in the thigh. The cargo congested of the harbor continues. Nearly 300 steamers and over 50 sailing vessels are waiting to discharge or take on cargo. Foreign longshoremen continue arriving here. Four hundred and eighty reached Hamburg Monday, but a great many of the Englishmen are returning h[illegible], over 300 having gone back to England since Saturday last.

Boy Confesses He Stole $1,600.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—R. W. Gray, the 17-year-old boy, who, on the 11th of last November, stole $1,460 from the Southern Express company at Salisbury, N. C., was caught in Buffalo, N. Y., and brought back to Salisbury. In his cell, young Gray made full confession of the theft and gave the story of his wanderings since the date of the robbery. He had been to South America, Canada and many other places.

Alleged Thief Identified.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10—A man giving his name as A. J. Southall, who was arrested in Augusta, was identified by means of pistols and overcoat by Charlotte officers as the man who broke into a Charlotte hardware store here last week and robbed it of a number of pistols, overcoat and six dollars.

Georgians Call at White House Pay Their Respects to Presid[ent] Resources of State To Be Adver[tised] In Europe.

Washington, April 10.—The [com]mittee of Georgians who will [go] Europe in the effort to turn some [por]tion of the tide of foreign immi[gra]tion to the south, left Washin[gton] Monday afternoon and sailed [from] New York Tuesday on the Kaiser [Wil]helm II for Bremen.

They expect to visit Germ[any], France, northern Italy, Nor[way], Sweden and Scotland and study [the] immigration problem.

The party included Governor [Hoke] Smith and wife; G. Gunby [Jor]dan, president of the Georgia I[mmi]gration association, and his n[iece] Miss Burnett, of Columbus, and [Ma]jor and Mrs. W. W. Willian[ms] of Savannah, Ga. They were [ac]companied as far as New York [by] A. Betjeman, of Albany, Ga.

The Georgians forming this s[pe]cial immigration commission called a[t the] white house and talked with the [pres]ident concerning the object of [the] trip, and the general purpose of [the] association. The president was [out]spoken in his approval and com[men]dation of their plans and pledge[d the] heartiest support of the administ[ration] in furthering their method of i[nvit]ing southern immigration. He [gave] to Hoke Smith a letter of presen[tation] to the United States ambassad[or at] Berlin. The party also bore l[etters] from the state department to [the] American representatives in E[urope] and letters from Charles A. Boy[den] of Washington, D. C., and M[r.] E. COL. SANCHEZ TALKS.

Chairman of Municipal Club Expresses Satisfaction Over Result.

A reporter of The Sun met Col. E O. F. Sanchez upon the street early Wednesday morning, following the election of Tuesday. The Colonel's face was wreathed in "the smile that won't come off," and when asked what he thought about the result, he said:

"I must say that I am highly grateful. The Municipal Club went into the fight upon principles as published, being in favor of a good and economical government.

"We had a splendid ticket, composed of temperate and intelligent citizens, and conducted a clean campaign from its beginning to the closing of the polls. There has been no mud-slinging. The men were persistent and zealous, but at all times conducting themselves as gentlemen.

"We would of course liked to have elected the whole ticket, but we should and do feel thankful that we were successful in electing all except three.

"It is most gratifying, because the Municipal Club has succeeded in awaking the people, and it is expected that we will have an improvement in municipal affairs.

"All the gentlemen running, on both tickets, were good men, but a strong opposition is best in the nation, the State and the city, that tending to maintain a healthy condition of affairs.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Philadelphia Parties Purchased Fine Timbered Lands Near Trenton.

Another important real estate deal has been made near Trenton, J. W. Patton, agent, having sold to M. D. Cloud for Philadelphia parties a tract of five hundred acres of fine timbered land near Trenton.

This timber is said to be among the best in the West End, noted for its massive pines. It is understood that it will be cut into crossties.

W. S. Broome it is understood has also sold to Venable & Co., the naval stores operators of Archer, a fine tract of timber land near that town.

A Surprise Party.

Mrs. Lula Moody tendered a surprise party complimentary to her brother, Charles Brabham, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the young man's birthday.

There were a great many of the young friends of Mr. Brabham present, all of whom brought appropriate presents. The evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner, the program comprising games, music, singing, etc. Delicious refreshments were served, and altogether the evening passed off most pleasantly.

Mr. Brabham good-naturedly declined to tell his age, which is still a mystery. Some of his young lady friends present, however, declared that they were in possession of information which led them to believe he was really "older than he looked," which it is said Mr. Brabham could not conscientiously deny.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Met to Swear in Newly Elected Officers, But Mayor Was Indisposed.

The City Council met Wednesday night for the purpose of swearing in the newly elected officials, but owing to the indisposition of Mayor Thomas this procedure was postponed until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Council, however, proceeded to some other business, among which the receiving of the report of the marshal for the ten days of April, showing $121.25, which was upon motion received and filed.

The Finance Committee also examined the report of Marshal Pinkoson from the Mayor's docket, which they found correct to date, and Marshal Pinkoson was given a certificate to that effect.

The Council will meet again this afternoon, at which time Mayor Thomas will administer the oath of office to the officers-elect. Marshal-Elect Arnow will probably go on duty immediately after being sworn in.

ELKS ARE APPRECIATIVE.

Large Crowd Gathered at Club to Hear Election Returns.

The Elks' club was thronged Tuesday night with the largest number of members of the order ever assembled there since its completion, having congregated to hear the telephone reports of the municipal election, which were sent in at intervals of every few moments by The Sun and marked upon an immense blackboard by Dr. J. M. Dell, secretary of the club.

The members remained at the club until midnight, when it was announced that no more reports would be received until the final count at the polling-place.

The members expressed high appreciation for the courtesy of the management of The Sun in furnishing them the reports so promptly.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Tuesday and Wednesday Were Busy Days With Land Office Force.

Tuesday and Wednesday were busy days with the clerical force at the United States land office, a large number having come to transact business with the office.

Among those who were here were A. J. Lynn, A. W. Lynn, Samuel C. Richardson, Lawtey Priest, C. C. Calloway, Isaac Munden, K. L. Osteen and R. L. Ransome, Morriston; Hardy Peterson, Dunnellon; James Jump, Montbrook; W. L. Markham, Romeo; Chas. C. Martin and Robt. T. Winn of Bell.

Sunday School Picnic.

The committees of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools are requested to meet at the office of Col. W. W. Hampton Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss the proposed annual picnic. No definite point has yet been selected by the committee. There are a number of delightful picnic grounds in the vicinity of Gainesville, but many have suggested Burnett's Lake. This matter, however, will be settled in a short time—probably at the meeting Friday.

Judge Mason's Court.

In Judge Mason's Court Wednesday there was a case of the State vs. G. W. Hart, charged with destroying a fence belonging to C. E. DeLand.

The case was called and submitted, but the defendant was discharged for want of evidence sufficient to convict, according to the opinion of the court.

Attorney J. M. Rivers represented the State, while Attorney Robt. E. Davis appeared for the defense.

WILL IRRIGATE HIS GROVES.

J. E. Futch, Just Home From South Florida, Says Drought is Bad.

"The drought on the orange groves in South Florida has been very disastrous, and I propose to be in a position to remedy any future condition of a similar calamity," remarked J. E. Futch Wednesday.

Mr. Futch, who calls Gainesville his home, but who owns valuable orange properties in DeSoto county, has just returned from Wauchula, where he has two fine groves. Mr. Futch stated that the long and continued drought had been very severe on the trees, and had cost him considerably, as the crop would be cut on account of the falling blooms. He is now having installed in one of his Wauchula groves an up-to-date irrigating plant, is boring wells, and by another season will have a modern plant in operation, when he will be independent at least in this one instance.

Mr. Futch began the process of irrigation by hauling water from a creek, but the creek eventually went dry, and there was nothing to do but stop work. The result was that his trees have suffered a great deal.

This condition does not only exist in the vicinity of Mr. Futch's groves, but throughout South Florida, and the damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

CURES ALL SKIN TROUBLES.

Sulphur the Accepted Remedy for a Hundred Years.

Sulphur is one of the greatest remedies nature ever gave to man. Every physician knows it cures skin and blood troubles. HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR enables you to get the full benefit in most convenient form. Don't take sulphur "tablets" or "wafers," or powdered sulphur in molasses. HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR is pleasant to take and perfect in its action. Druggists sell it.

A well known citizen of Danville, Pa., writes: "I have had an aggravated case of Eczema for over twenty-five years. I have used seven 50-cent bottles of the LIQUID, and one jar of your HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR OINTMENT, and now I feel as though I had a brand new pair of hands. It has cured me and I am certain it will cure anyone if they persist in using HANCOCK'S LIQUID SULPHUR according to directions.

"BUTLER EDGAR."

Card From Mr. Arnow.

To the Voters of the City of Gainesville and All Citizens:

I take this method to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the honor which has been bestowed upon me by election to the responsible position of city marshal. I desire to emphatically impress upon you that I conducted my campaign not as a member of any organization or faction, but solely as an independent candidate, and I propose to discharge my duty in the same way.

Again thanking you, and assuring you that I will always endeavor to act for the best and most conservative interests of the city, Sincerely,

B. T. ARNOW.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

RHEUMATISM

WORSE FROM YEAR TO YEAR

The cause of Rheumatism is an excess of uric acid in the blood, brought on by indigestion, chronic constipation, weak kidneys and a general sluggish condition of the entire system. The refuse and waste matter of the body is not carried out as nature intends, but is left to ferment and sour and generate uric acid, which is absorbed into the blood. The first evidence of Rheumatism is usually little wandering pains in the muscles and joints, or a tender, sensitive place on the flesh. These are often so slight that nothing is thought of them and they pass away; but with each recurrence the trouble becomes more severe, and from slight wandering pains and excited nerves, Rheumatism grows to be a painful and almost constant trouble. The longer the poison remains in the blood the firmer hold the trouble gets on the system. Each day the acid deposit is increasing and the disease grows worse from year to year. After awhile the joints become coated with a corrosive substance which seriously interferes with their working and movements and sometimes they become permanently stiff and useless. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by going down into the blood and attacking the disease at its head. It neutralizes the poisons and acids and dissolves the salts and irritating deposits, making the blood stream pure, fresh and healthy. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and is therefore a safe remedy. When the blood has been purified by S. S. S., the pains and aches pass away, and the cure is permanent. Book on Rheumatism, and medical advice free.

Good Shooting Being Done.

New York, April 10.—Remarkably good shooting is being done by the men of the United States battleships at their target practice at Guantanamo, Cuba, according to the officers and men of the Glacier, which has arrived at the New York navy yard to take on supplies for the fleet. There are more than forty ships in the fleet at Guantanamo, 14 being battleships, and they have been having target practice during the last two weeks.

Will Build Three Battleships.

Rio de Janeiro, April 9.—Under the modified contracts of the government three battleships of 18,000 tons each will be built by the Armstrongs, and three cruisers, three torpedo boat destroyers and a number of other vessels for the navy will be constructed by another British firm. The program calls for 27 vessels.

Must Load to Full Capacity.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 10.—According to a ruling of M. M. Richey, manager of the Western and Southern divisions of the Southern railway, all coal cars are of the system must hereafter be loaded to their utmost capacity. This order has been issued for its effect on the car shortage and the ruling may be applied to other commodities.

Smathers Will Retain Cup.

Brasses and Bronzes of the Hindoos.

The brass and bronze trade is kept alive by the religious customs of the Hindoos, who are not allowed to use wooden and earthenware vessels freely, and brass and bronze are to them as important as glass and china to the westerners. Almost all Hindoo utensils are of brass, copper or bronze, and it is the custom to present the female portion of a Hindoo family with a valuable batterie de cuisine, made either of brass or copper, and a still existing Hindoo ceremony is that of carrying the utensils in a procession at the wedding. The result of this custom is that almost all the platters, trays, bowls, nutcrackers and all brass and copper utensils are most beautifully ornamented, and there are lovely combinations of brass and copper and silver and copper. All Hindoo women used to have lovely brass caskets covered with ornamentations called chellams, manufactured in Malabar, in which they kept their jewels, but these are fast being replaced by the vulgar English japanned dispatch box.

The Duke's Breeches.

Mrs. Loudon was an accomplished lady, who wrote not only on floriculture, but on arboriculture and landscape gardening, and illustrated what she wrote. In one of her works she desired to insert a sketch of the "Waterloo Beeches" at Strathfieldsaye, a picturesque clump planted to commemorate our deliverance from the Corsican tyrant. Accordingly she wrote to the Duke of Wellington requesting leave to sketch the beeches and signed herself in her usual form, 'J. Loudon.' The duke, who, in spite of extreme age and with perceptions not quite so clear as they had once been, insisted on doing all his own correspondence, replied as follows:

F. M. the Duke of Wellington presents his compliments to the bishop of London. The bishop is quite at liberty to make a sketch of the breeches which the duke wore at Waterloo if they can be found, but the duke is not aware that they differed in any way from the breeches which he generally wears.

—G. W. E. Russell in Manchester Guardian.

Why

Have a torpid liver when Herbine, the only liver regulator, will help you? There is no reason why you should suffer from dyspepsia, constipation, chills or fever, or any liver complaints, and Herbine cures you. F. C. [illegible], Fla., writes: "I was sick for a month with chills and fever, and after taking two bottles of Herbine am well and hearty." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Judgement Against Embezzler.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10.—A judgment for $17,432, by default, has been found in the circuit court against Gorden DuBose, ex-president of the Easley bank, which failed last year, and as a result of which he is under a six-year federal sentence as an embezzler.

CAPE PRINCE OF WALES.

Where America Nods to Asia Across a Narrow Strait.

The most western point of the American continent is a bold granite mountain 2,500 feet high, very abrupt on the sea side and sloping gently toward the interior.

From this mountain one can see a long stretch of the mainland of Siberia. The American point is Cape Prince of Wales. That on the Siberian coast is East cape.

The string of islands running between the two leaves only fourteen miles of open sea between them. The passage is not a difficult one and is often made in a few hours in the open skin boats of the Eskimos, who inhabit both coasts. Every winter it is possible to cross on the ice.

Cape Prince of Wales has the reputation of being the most inclement place in the world. But the very elements combine in making it one of the great hunting places of the arctic regions. The whale, walrus, bear and seal, following the ice south in the fall and north in the spring, pass through this comparatively narrow channel.

This accounts for the cape having one of the largest Eskimo settlements on the arctic coast. The cape village is the clearing house for a large region. Furs come from far up the Yukon and the interior to be exchanged for Siberian reindeer skins.

The natives are heavy, strong of arm and back and very light on their feet. They are short legged, but very fleet footed and great jumpers. They begin to practice jumping as soon as they can walk.

The favorite way of jumping is to spring up and kick with the toes of both feet and come down again on their feet. Many of them can in this way touch a point from twelve to thirty inches above their heads.

In looks they resemble the Japanese far more than the Chinese, but they are lighter in complexion and very ruddy faced. The girls and young women are good looking; some are handsome. Their eyes are a clear brown and very bright, and their eyesight is marvelous.

Their food is what the sea produces—seal, walrus, whale and fish. The hair seal is the most useful. It furnishes the skin for footwear, mittens, trousers, material for nets, ropes and bags for oil.

The flesh is used for food. The blubber, which is the largest part of the seal, furnishes oil for food, light and heat. The quantity of seals seems to be unlimited. Unlike the fur seals the hair seal never comes ashore. It is captured in nets, and when the ice forms it is shot.—Southern Workman.

Right Breathing Cures Catarrh.

If you cut your finger, you don't attempt to heal it by swallowing a pill or a dose of medicine.

It is just as foolish to try and cure catarrh of the nose and throat with pills and stomach dosing, for catarrh is a local disease, and needs special local healing treatment.

The only natural and common-sense method known for the cure of catarrhal troubles is Hy-o-mei. It is breathed through an ingenious pocket inhaler, so that its medicated air reaches the most remote air-cells of the nose, throat and lungs, killing all catarrhal germs, soothing the irritated mucous membranes, and restoring a healthy condition.

If you suffer from catarrhal troubles, such as offensive breath, raising of mucous, frequent sneezing, husky voice, discharge from the nose, droppings in the throat, loss of strength, spasmodic coughing, or a feeling of tightness across the upper part of the chest, you should begin to use Hy-o-mei at once. It will destroy all disease germs in the nose, throat and lungs, and provide the blood with additional ozone.

The complete Hy-o-mei outfit with inhaler costs but $1. So strong is J. W. McCollum's faith in the power of Hyomei to cure all catarrhal troubles, that with every dollar outfit, he gives an iron-clad guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy gives satisfaction.

TO KEEP GRIP ON CUBA.

Occupation Will Last for Another Year at Least.

Havana, April 10—The members of the committee of insurgents with whom Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon made arrangements for peace in Cuba in September last, had a conference with the secretary Monday. Secretary Taft in spite of the requests of the committee refused to give his visitors the date of the withdrawal of the American forces from Cuba.

The committee asked that the moderate governors in the different provinces and the moderate mayors and city councils be replaced by liberals, but Mr. Taft declared that he would leave that entirely to Governor Magoon. He added that the administration was highly satisfied with the governor's conduct of Cuban affairs and he would be given more authority than ever.

The secretary met the conservatives Monday afternoon and discussed the insular situation. He said that owing to economical conditions he considered a national election at an early date to be unwise, and recommended that such election be postponed until the result of the municipal and provincial elections be known. The conservative representatives expressed their willingness to leave all to the good judgment of the Unted States. Secretary Taft will meet the conservatives again on Wednesday.

After this interview representatives of all the leading banks of Cuba called upon Secretary Taft and asked him to give them one or two years' notice before the holding of the national elections, claiming that unless this was done, the effect upon commercial conditions in the island would be disastrous.

The bankers urged the secretary not to change the present currency to American money, claiming that to do so would increase the cost of living 12 per cent. The committee of the chamber of commerce spoke to the secretary in a similar vein.

There is a general impression gathered by what Secretary Taft said that the American occupation of Cuba will last for another year, at least.

This man bought a supply of tobacco without acquainting himself with the distinctive taste of SCHNAPPS Tobacco, which has the cheering qualities that gratify his desire to chew, and at less expense than cheap tobacco.

SCHNAPPS has been advertised in this paper so that every chewer has had an opportunity to get acquainted with the facts and know that drugs are not used to produce the cheering quality found in the famous Piedmont country flue-cured tobaccos, and that SCHNAPPS is what he ought to chew. Still there are chewers who accept other and cheaper tobaccos that do not give the same pleasure.

Some day they'll get a taste of the real Schnapps—they'll realize what enjoyment they've missed by not getting SCHNAPPS long ago—then they'll feel like kicking themselves.

SCHNAPPS is sold everywhere in 5 cent cuts, and 10 and 15 cent plugs. Be sure you get the genuine.

Will Visit American Cities.

New York, April 10.—George S. Atwood, secretary of the American association of commerce of Berlin, arrived Tuesday on the steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. He will visit Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other cities to bring his association into closer relations with the chambers of commerce of American cities. Frederick S. Archenhold, director of the Trepow university, also came over to attend the national peace conference in New York and the dedication of the Carnegie institute in Pittsburg. Moberly Bell, manager of the London Times, who will attend the peace congress was also a passenger on the steamer.

Big Order for Electrical Equipment.

New York, April 10.—Announcement is made that the Oji Paper Company, of Tokio, Japan, has placed a million dollar order for electrical equipment with the General Electric company to be completed and shipped to Japan within six months. The machinery ordered comprises besides the motor equipment, paper making machinery a water power electric plant which will be erected 15 miles from the mills proper.

Prizes Will Aggregate $5,000.

New York, April 10.—The Aero Club of America has received word that prizes aggregating $5,000 have been offered by the Aero club of St. Louis for aeroplanes and dirigible balloons. Contests will be arranged for the days immediately preceding and following the race for the international challenge cup, which is set for October 19th, from St. Louis.

The election Tuesday was the close of one of the most interesting municipal campaigns ever witnessed in Gainesville. There were two tickets in the field, one known as the Administration ticket and the other the Municipal Club ticket. While neither elected their whole ticket, yet we are both pleased with the result of the election. While there was great interest taken in the contest there was no unpleasantness indulged in whatever, and those who expected anything of the kind were disappointed. Now that the election is over the citizens of Gainesville will get together and work as one for the building and beautifying of the city.

CONTROVERSY MEANS WHAT?

Most thinking people in Washington believe that the controversy between Mr. Harriman and the President over Harriman's alleged contributions to the campaign fund of 1904 is a part of a widespread scheme for discrediting the administration with the public in order to divert attention from themselves. It is simply drawing a red herring across the trail to confuse the scent. Nobody particularly cares whether Mr. Harriman contributed $50,000 to the campaign fund, as he says he did, or not. After the way he had looted the Alton railroad, he was well able to contribute a million if he wanted to. But that he came to Washington at the solicitation of the President, and contributed the money at the solicitation of the President, nobody for a moment believes. There would be very little hesitation in the minds of most people in accepting President Roosevelt's word before that of Mr. Harriman, and the mere fact of whether he ever made the contribution at all, ought to be easily established from his own check book or the records of the Republican Campaign Committee. Secretary Cortelyou, who was then chairman of the committee, says that no such contribution passed through his hands, and Cornelius N. Bliss, who is notoriously a taciturn, unapproachable old person, refuses to discuss the matter at all. It would be a good thing, however, for the reputation of the party if the members of the committee would for once come out into the open and admit whether or not they received the money. Conclusive proof that the contribution as well as the method of it was a fiction, would do more than anything else to stop the campaign of crimination that the railroads are now waging against the government simply because they fear the government is going to make them act fairly by the shipping public. This is not a party matter, and the bitterest party man can afford to look at it fairly. If it were the Democratic party that was in power, the same campaign of investigation would be waged against the railroads, perhaps an even more severe campaign. And in that case, the railroads would be just as ready to attack the investigators. The fight that is on now is no party matter. It is one of public policy, and the people at large will be wise if they see it in that light.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is going this week to put Mr. Harriman on the grill again. They will not have him on the witness stand, but the representatives of his railroad system will present arguments before the commission as to why he should not be compelled to answer the questions that he evaded during the recent New York investigation. When the arguments of the railroad and the government attorneys have both been presented, the commission will decide whether to take the case to New York courts and ask for a rule compelling Harriman to answer the questions as to his private stock jobbing exploits. Whether this is done or not, the evidence accumulated in the case will be certified to the Department of Justice, where the Attorney-General will decide whether to institute a civil or a criminal action against Mr. Harriman.

The temperance people are down to work in Santa Rosa county, and mean business. One by one the counties throughout the State aspire to be in the dry column. If the question continues to be agitated and the temperance people are as successful in the future as they have been in the past, it will not be long before the entire State will be dry.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The split in the Republican party in Ohio is even more accentuated in New York, where the Hughes-Roosevelt ring is warring against the machine faction. How much of this kind of factional fighting the G. O. P. can stand without permanent injury is the question the politicians are asking. As the only way to judge the future is by the past, the history of internecine party strife shows that almost always the Administration forces have been successful at the conventions but often beaten at the election. The power and patronage of the party in power is a tremendous lever to control the party workers as long as there are any offices to bestow or to promise for the future. The question of "boodle" also cuts a big figure in the fight for supremacy within the Republican party and in the two States mentioned the supply of cash should be about equal. There will be a great chance for the colored brethren to secure their share of the spoils, and in those localities where the negro vote holds the balance of power the price of votes at the caucusses and conventions should be enough to secure for the recipients a let up from active labor for quite a time. As the fight warms up the onlookers will be better able to judge who will win out and the amount of damage the party has suffered.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

AN OLD INDIAN STORY

The Legend of the Love Tragedy of Medicine Bluff.

FATE OF TWO KIOWA BRAVES.

The Proof of Daring and Test of Love Demanded by the Beautiful Maiden, Laughing Moonbeam—A Wild and Fearless Leap Into Eternity.

In days gone by—so runs a legend old as the hills that gave it birth, sorrowful as the fate of the people about which it tells—there dwelt in the Wichita mountains an old Indian chief of the Kiowa tribe, renowned as a warrior, revered as a ruler.

With him in his wigwam of dressed buffalo hides, twenty all told, for he was a mighty chieftain, lived the young Laughing Moonbeam, his daughter, a maiden as renowned for beauty as was the illustrious warrior who gave her birth for prowess in battle.

Her smile was the guerdon, her hand the prize, for which all the young braves of her tribe as well as those of neighboring tribes strove in friendly bout and deadly battle. But Laughing Moonbeam had eyes but for two, and yet could not decide between her faithful lovers—tall Delos and brave Belo, both of royal stock, both well favored. Finally the perplexed princess of the plains put an end to perplexity and suspense by setting for her eager lovers a task.

This task was truly a proof of bravery and a test of love. Upon a certain day the young men were to mount their ponies and, riding at full tilt to the top of a high bluff, leap to the plains below, he who survived the terrible leap of many hundred feet to be given to the princess in marriage.

At this point a brief description of the bluff, which is itself a part of this quaint legend, will not come amiss. This particular peak of the Wichita mountains is known in redskin annals as Medicine bluff, from the fact that the mysterious medicine men were wont to meet upon its summit and there concoct their potent charms, making medicine and hatching evil midnight plots upon the haunted mountain top, for the bluff itself bore an unsavory reputation among the redskins. It is of an exceedingly peculiar formation, having the appearance of being cut cleanly in two from apex to base, the Kiowas believing that the missing half was spirited away in the night by the emissaries of the evil one.

The legend further states that upon the day set for the task, the day when half a score of foolish young braves were to ride to their death at the bidding of a mere squaw—so said the old men of the tribe contemptuously—the whole tribe, with many from the neighboring tribes, gathered at the foot of Medicine bluff to await the outcome.

"They come! See, Belo, the brave, leads!" cried an old medicine man, pointing across the prairies. Proudly the young braves came on, the morning sunlight flashing back from their glittering, snow white robes of dressed deerskin adorned with myriads of brilliantly colored glass beads, elk teeth and sweeping deerskin fringe. Eagle plumes topped all this barbaric splendor, trailing out far behind in the brisk prairie breeze.

A sigh of mingled admiration and sorrow went up from the multitude as the young braves, the flower of the tribe, began to mount the menacing bluff. Swiftly the sturdy little ponies took the trail upward, the watchers below waiting spellbound for the crucial moment. The princess, Laughing Moonbeam, standing beside the tall old warrior chieftain, looked calmly, proudly upward, her glance resting but a moment upon the cheering crowd.

"See, only Belo and Delos have reached the top!" some one shouted excitedly. Too true, the other youths, faint hearted, perhaps, or their reason returning in the face of such a foolhardy casting away of human and brute life, were slowly coming down the rugged mountain trail, leaving the two determined suitors poised on the brink of the bluff.

A moment horses and riders stood outlined against the vivid blue like two great uncouth birds poised for flight. The shuddering multitude below turned away sickened, and women shrieked as the brave little ponies took the leap. Horses and riders turned in the air, then crashed with mighty shock upon the cruel stones at the foot of the bluff, a sight that made strong men weep and curse and cry aloud at the pity of it all. The senseless form of Laughing Moonbeam—husbandless for all time, for the happy hunting grounds claimed the spirits of her dead lovers—was borne from the scene in the arms of the weeping old warrior chief. The squaws, with bared breasts, gathered about the dead bodies and commenced to wail the death dirge of the Kiowas, slashing their naked breasts and arms the while with sharp hunting knives.

And today Medicine bluff towers serenely above the beautiful little creek of the same name that ripples along at its foot, forgetful of the sad scene once mirrored in its liquid breast.—

THE LEAD PENCIL.

Its Development From the Markers Used by the Ancients.

It is difficult to determine the exact period in which "black lead" was first utilized as an instrument for writing or drawing, as it has been confused with other mineral bodies to which it bears no relation. The ancients used lead, but the metal was formed into flat plates and the edges of these plates used to make the mark. If an ornamental design was desired, the transcriber drew parallel lines and traced therein illuminated designs, usually with a hard point, but also with soft lead. That lead was known to the ancients is also proved by the fact that it is mentioned in the book of Job.

During the year 1615 there was a description of the black lead pencil written by Conrad Gesner. He says that pieces of plumbago were fastened in a wooden handle and a mixture of fossil substance, sometimes covered with wood, was used for writing and drawing. About half a century later a very good account of this mineral was given, and it was then used in Italy for drawing and mixed with clay for manufacturing crucibles.

We are informed in Beckman's "History of Inventions" that the pencils first used in Italy for drawing were composed of a mixture of lead and tin, nothing more than pewter. This pencil was called a stile. Michael Angelo mentions this stile, and, in fact, it seems that such pencils were long used in common over the whole continent of Europe. At this period the name plumbago or graphite was not in use, but instead the name molybdena or molybdoids, which is now applied to an entirely different mineral.

Graphite or black lead is formed in the primary rocks. In the United States it occurs in feldspar and quartz, in Great Britain in greenstone rock and gneiss and in Norway in quartz. The mine at Borrowdale, England, has supplied some of the finest black lead in the world, but the quantity varies owing to the irregularity with which the mineral occurs.

The Jews were for awhile the only manufacturers of pencils. It required great skill to perfect the manufacture, according to the degree of hardness or softness required. Of recent years the manufacture of pencils has increased to such an extent that the price of these articles has decreased proportionately. Graphite and pure clay are combined and used in the manufacture of artificial black lead pencils, and, on the other hand, the greatest perfection is attained in the making of the higher class pencils. Graphite is exposed to heat to acquire firmness and brilliancy of color. Sulphur is also used to secure a more perfect color.—Scientific American.

One Thing at a Time

"I can't afford to advertise on a large scale," said a merchant lately, "and with my varied stock I wouldn't know where to begin on a small scale."

It is a common fallacy that the advertising must cover the whole stock.

In point of fact it never does, even with the most lavish advertisers, and, if it did, the result would be a jumble of prolixity. The true policy is to select one article at a time—something moderately priced and meeting the want of the day—and push that at the people.—Philadelphia Record.

SHOT WOMAN; KILLED SELF.

Colabella Was Infatuated with Wife of Another Man.

Milford, Mass., April 10.—Declaring that he had killed the girl he loved, Guiseppe Colabella, a shoe operative, committed suicide here.

Mrs. Guiseppe Polidori, with whom he is said to have been infatuated, appeared at a house in the outskirts of town with two bullet wounds in her head and apparently in a dying condition. Colabella went to his boarding house and exclaimed:

"I killed the girl I loved in the woods. I will kill myself."

Then the man ran upstairs to his room and shot himself. Mrs. Polidori is the wife of Rocco Polidori, of Bellington. She is 23 years old and with her two children has been living with her parents here.

Umbrella Trade Declining.

London, April 10.—Umbrella dealers are complaining that their trade is declining. It is certainly less brisk than formerly. The English climate has not altered, but many persons are coming to regard umbrellas as indispensible. The dealers attribute the falling off in sales to the disuse of silk hats and the more frequent use of derby hats, which are better adapted to wet weather and are cheaper. Another supposed cause is that rainproof coats are worn by many more persons than formerly. Women buy fewer umbrellas now, notwithstanding they risk their brightest finery outdoors without these means of protection against the wet. They rely upon refuge in tea rooms, omnibuses and the underground railways in cases of rainy weather suddenly coming upon them.

Three Killed by Explosion.

New Castle, Pa., April 10.—Three men were instantly killed at Hillsville by an explosion of a ton of powder at the plant of Burton Powder company. A spark is supposed to have dropped into the powder. John King, of Lowellville, aged 30 years, and two Italians, were the victims.

Hail Storm at Waynesboro.

Waynesboro, Ga., April 10.—A severe hailstorm visited Burke county cutting a swath through the growing crops of corn and cotton. Trees were stripped of their foliage and young pigs were killed. After a severe all-night rain, hailstones were piled up bushel lots in the drifts.

Machinists Go Out on Strike.

New Orleans, La., April 10.—About 150 machinists and helpers went on strike Monday because their employers refused to agree to a minimum wage scale of $3.50 per day. Thirty-six firms, comprising the New Orleans Metal Trades Association are affected by the strike.

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them; and in confirmation of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery," which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unsolicited testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhal pelvic drains, pain or perious, irregularities, prolapsus and other displacements, caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the glyceric extracts of native, medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. Both medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle-wrapper.

Rawhide Used on Editor.

New Orleans, La., April 9.—Francisco O. Rojas, a Guatemalan, who claims to have been exiled from his country, because he printed a congressional message of President Estrada Carbrera on the last page of a newspaper, which he edited, arrived here Monday. He said that before being exiled, he was imprisoned for a month, and beaten with a rawhide whip. Rojas said that the presidential message reached him at a late hour, when it would have been almost impossible to print in on the front page.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Only One Wire House Left.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10.—With the closing of the wire exchange of Abercrombie & Co., in this city, on Monday, the beginning of the end of such places in Alabama was enacted. There is but one wire house left in Birmingham. The attorney general of the state, who was here Monday, has ruled that the prohibition tax is not in force this year, having been enacted through mistake. The new law, however, prevents all such places from doing business after January 1, 1908.

Stomach and Liver Trouble Cured.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures stomach and liver trouble as it aids digestion, and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills and ordinary cathartics. It cures indigestion and sick headache and chronic constipation. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Henry Clay's Grandson Dead.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—Thomas H. Clay, a grandson of Henry Clay, and a well known Kentuckian, died at his home Monday. Mr. Clay was 65 years old and for many years was one of the editors of the Youth's Companion in Boston. He has devoted much of his time in late years to writing and had nearly completed a biography of his grandfather.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.

Tampa and Jacksonville Will Resume Its Old Service in Few Days.

Information comes through a reliable source that the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad, formerly the Gainesville and Gulf, will resume its former schedule north of Gainesville, next Sunday.

For the past few weeks, for some reason best known to the management, the Tampa and Jacksonville has been giving a service of only one train each way a day, which has proved very inconvenient to the traveling public. After Sunday, however, trains will leave Gainesville for Sampson City at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., making connection at the latter place with the Georgia Southern for all points north and south. Returning, the trains will arrive in Gainesville at 10:10 a. m. and 9:20 p. m.

It is the purpose of General Superintendent Cutler to keep the service up to the best that can be had with his equipment.

Card of Thanks.

Marshal Chas. Pinkoson, who will soon retire, desires through The Sun to extend his hearty thanks and appreciation to those who voted for him at the election Tuesday, and also to those who have supported him in the past.

Marshal Pinkoson has made an efficient and faithful officer, which fact is appreciated by the people of Gainesville, all of whom will always wish him well.

W. J. Knight of Newberry was among those who came to Gainesville trading yesterday.

George Gleason and son, Henry, were in the city from Rocky Point yesterday. Mr. Gleason, who is engaged as a trucker, states that the high winds have caused a great deal of damage to the vegetable crops in his section.

Mrs. James C. Parsons of Cambridge, Mass., who has been here for the past few weeks as a guest of Col. J. G. Nichols and family, left for her home Tuesday. Mrs. Parsons made many friends here who hope for her return next season.

J. S. Bailey of Newberry was in the city yesterday. Mr. Bailey is one of the most widely known residents of the West End, and owns a comfortable home near that progressive town. He states that the R. F. D. routes out of Newberry will be establishhd on the 16th inst.

The "good old summer time" is approaching when those who contemplate keeping cool must necessarily provide themselves as an adjunct with a refrigerator. The Gainesville Furniture Company has a refrigerator advertisement in this issue, to which the attention of our readers is invited. Remember, the terms are either cash or credit. It's poor judgment to swelter up and be miserable during the long, hot season, when you can keep cool on a credit if you do not feel you can afford to pay cash for the comfort.

Hon. Shields Warren, receiver of the United States land office, has returned from a brief visit to his home, Apalachicola. Mr. Warren brought with him on his return his handsome setter-spaniel pup, "Rover," which he reared, and of which he is very proud. "Rover" is a handsome dog, and will be trained as the mascot of the land office. He will make a good politician, as his disposition is of a most affable nature. He became acquainted with several of the Gainesville canines before he had been in town a half day, including "Mac," the mascot of The Sun, with whom he appeared to be particularly agreeable.

MRS. MYERS AND LOVER ESCAPE DEATH

Governor Folk Has Commuted Sentences

TO IMPRISONMENT FOR LIFE

As Myers Was Struggling with Wife's Lover, and Crying to Her for Aid, She Took a Razor and Slashed Him to Pieces.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 10.—The sentences of death imposed on Mrs. Aggie Myers, of Kansas City, and Frank Holtman, of Higginsville, Mo., who were convicted of having murdered the woman's husband, Clarence Myers, in 1904, were Monday commuted by Governor Folk to imprisonment for life.

They will at once be brought to the state penitentiary here.

Mrs. Myers is confined in the Clay county jail, at Liberty, and Holtman is confined in the Kansas City jail.

In a message to the secretary of state relative to the action in commuting the sentences, Governor Folk states that he believes that public morals will be better conserved by commuting the sentences of Mrs. Myers to life imprisonment, than by hanging her.

In the case of her accomplice, Frank Holtman, he said, similar facts to those in the Myers case exist, and for that reason, he calso commuted Holtman's sentence to life imprisonment.

Liberty, Mo., April 10.—When told in her cell that Governor Folk had commuted her sentence of death to life imprisonment, Mrs. Aggie Myers smiled and then laughed for joy.

"I am so grateful to the governor," she exclaimed. "Of course, I have been hopeful of getting a new trial and feel sure if one could be obtained my innocence would be proven next time, for I am innocent. I cannot give up hope that my lawyers will yet be able to do something for me in that way, and the fact become known to the world that I am not guilty of the crime charged against me."

Anniversary of Vesuvius' Eruption.

Rome, April 10.—The anniversary of the disastrous eruption of Mount Vesuvius last year was marked Monday by two harmless earthquakes in Calabria, and huge religious processions in town around the volcano. The famous statue of the Madonna, believed by the people to have sweated during the calamity, was carried about by the clergy and local authorities and was followed by thousands of worshipers. The processional feast at Nocera Inferiore ended in a riot caused, it is said, by excitement over a report that another statue of the Madonna was opening and shutting its eyes. Police had to quell the disturbances.

Wealthy Widow Adjudged Insane.

Webb City, Mo., April 10.—As a result of brooding over being denied admission into Joplin society several years ago, when her husband, the late state Senator Thomas Connor, became suddenly rich from mining operations, Mrs. Connor was on Monday adjudged insane. Senator Connor died recently, leaving an estate valued at over $2,000,000.

Conference Will Last Several Days.

Berlin, April 10.—Five Americans who were appointed to superintend the observance of customs rules regarding exports from Europe to the United States, are conferring here as to the best way of dealing with the various manufacturing interests in different European countries, the conference will last several days.

Broom Plant Destroyed.

Amsterdam, N. Y., April 10.—The plant of the Amsterdam Broom company, the largest independent brush and broom concern in the country, was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning. Loss $50,000. William Sullivan, a member of the fire department, was instantly killed.

ISLE OF PINES BELONGS TO CUBA

Decision Rendered by United States Supreme Court.

Washington, April 10.—That the Isle of Pines is not American territory was officially and judicially declared Monday by the supreme court of the United States.

The decision was rendered in the famous case of Edward J. Peary vs. Nevada N. Stranahan, collector of the port at New York, and the opinion of the court was announced by Chief Justice Fuller, who said that up to the Paris treaty the Isle of Pines had been considered as an integral part of Cuba and that it could not be held to be covered by article 2 of that treaty, which included only islands in the vicinity of Porto Rico.

The case originated in connection with the importation of a few boxes of cigars by Pearcy in September, 1903, but its hearing by the court was from time to time postponed in the hope that the status of the island might be definitely fixed by legislation or diplomacy. The cigars were made in the Isle of Pines of tobacco grown there, and when they arrived, Pearcy refused to pay duty on the ground that they were of domestic origin. The collector thereupon seized them, and Pearcy appealed to the United States circuit court, where he secured no relief, as that court sustained a demurrer filed by the government, and dismissed the case. He promptly brought the case to the supreme court, by which the decree of the lower court was affirmed.

STOPS WORK ON SOUTHERN.

Its Inability to Negotiate Sale of Improvement Bonds.

Scottsboro, Ala., April 10.—Owing to the fact that the Southern railway has been unable to negotiate a sale of its improvements bonds, large contracts in northern Alabama and the southern part of Tennessee, are being suspended.

These include the extension of the Stevenson and Chattanooga branch, and the tunnel through Lookout mountain, at Cummins Gap.

The resident engineer and twelve assistants in charge of this work, have been withdrawn, and the monthly estimates for W. J. Oliver, the contractor, have been greatly reduced

It is reported in Scottsboo, that the company has cancelled its contract for the steel superstructure of the bridge across the Tennessee river at Otis island, and that the bridge company is to be paid 6 per cent of its contract with the cancellation.

Was Acquitted by Mistake.

Columbus, Ga., April 10.—A remarkable incident occurred Monday in the city court of Columbus, when a negro, "Sleepy" Glenn arraigned on the charge of vagrancy, was given his liberty through a curious error. A motion was made and carried in the jury room that a verdict of "guilty" be returned. The foreman in writing the verdict inadvertently made is "not guilty," and the verdict was so announced. The judge dismissed the jury, and when the author of the motion made his way to the judge, and explained hurriedly that the verdict as announced is not the one agreed upon, it was too late to rectify the mistake.

Deputy Sheriff Shot Down.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10—Deputy Sheriff John Roderick, of Centerville, Ala., was shot and instantly killed at a house near the Sipsey Lumber company plant, in Bibb county. Roderick and Sim Darden, a Tuscaloosa deputy, had gone to a house to arrest a man, named Redd, charged with burglary. As they approached, the door was thrown open and Roderick instantly killed. Darden was covered with pistols by three other men, and the guilty all got awar.

He Shot Horse to Stop Him.

Montgomery, Ala., April 10.—Mrs. Bert Cobb of this city, was painfully wounded resulting from a runaway accident on Washington avenue. The negro lost control of the horse, and her husband, in an endeavor to stop the horse, shot him, without killing him. The infuriated horse ran into a telegraph pole, precipitating Mrs. Cobb, who was taken to a hospital for treatment. Her husband was not hurt.

TENNESSEE MOB THRASHES NEGRO

GAVE HIM A TERRIBLE FLOGGING

Negro Is Reported To Have Died from the Effects of His Treatment—He Is Said To Have Insulted White Man, Which Enraged the Mob.

Nashville, Tenn., April 10.—A dispatch from Huntington, Tenn., says that an enraged mob boarded a Louisville and Nashville train at Trezevant on Monday, seized the negro porter, and gave him a terrible beating from which he is reported to have ded.

The negro is said to have insulted a white man named DeWitt Bowder.

Newspaper Plant Destroyed.

Columbus, O., April 10.—The 6-story brick Ell-Mithoff building, on High street, a block north of the state house and occupied by the Evening Dispatch newspaper plant and the Hoster three-story building adjacent, were practically destroyed by fire on Tuesday morning, entailing a loss estimated at $300,000. The Dispatch plant is water soaked and the upper floor, holding the engraving plant, is burned out and machinery damaged. The Dispatch estimates its loss at $150,000. It is believed that some of the presses and machines can be repaired. Fire Chief Lauer has ordered every one to keep away as the walls of the building are liable to fall at any time.

Saw It In a Paper; Dies in Hysterics.

Chicago, April 10.—A dispatch to the Tribune, from Evansville, Ind., says: Thrown into a state of nervous prostration by reading an account published in a newspaper of her supposed death, Mrs. Louis A. Dooley, aged 49, expired Monday night. Through an error the death of a woman of the same name was reported as having occurred in Mrs. Dooley's home, and as she read the story she fell from her chair to the floor. A physician was called, but was unable to learn the reason for Mrs. Dooley's colapse. She became rational later and after talking a few minutes, began to cry: "I am dead; I am dead. I saw is in the paper!" and died in hysterics.

Paroles Kansas Murderer.

Topeka, Kans., April 10.—Governor Hoch has, it is stated, authoritatively decided to parole "Wilde" Sells, who has served nearly twenty years in the Kansas penitentiary for the murder of his father, mother, sister and brother. The case has been a noted one. The murders were committed on March 7, 1888, the four persons having been cut and slashed in a horrible manner. Willie stoutly maintained his innocence. In defending Sells his attorneys argued that it would have been a physical impossibility for him to have committed the crime, as he was sickly and developed no more than a boy of 13 years.

Man Shot To Death.

Sandersville, Ga., April 10.—Turner Roughton shot and instantly killed Ben S. Jackson. Both men were prominent farmers near Davisboro. Roughton had shut up some cattle of Jackson's that had destroyed Roughton's crop. Jackson demanded their release. Roughton refused unless the damage was paid. Words followed, Jackson shot, but missed. Roughton returned the fire, and killed Jackson. Roughton is in jail, having come to town and given himself up to the sheriff. He claims self-defense.

Prisoners for Atlanta.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—H. B. Wilson, Walter Wood and Charles Rogers, the noted yeggemen, were given fifeen months and two years an a half respectively in the Mocksville superior court, Davie county. They were charged with robbing the bank of Davie. The three prisoners were brought here from Atlanta and will be returned to that city.

SLAIN FOR SLAPPING HUSBAND.

Prominent New York Physician Accused of Murder.

New York, April 10.—Dr. Samuel S. Guy, a prominent dentist of Far Rockaway and for a number of years coroner of Queens Borough, is under arrest charged with the murder of his wife in their home.

The woman's body was found lying on the dining room floor with two bullet wounds in the breast. Dr. Guy was arrested as he was leaving the house and just as a servant came screaming from one of the doors and hysterically told a policeman that her mistress was dead.

The doctor came from a saloon near his residence and entered his home. It is alleged that he went to the kitchen and annoyed a servant for some minutes, finally being induced to leave the girl by his wife. The servant says that as husband and wife entered the dining room Mrs. Guy slapped his face. Immediately afterward the door closed and in a few minutes two shots startled the girl.

Dr. Guy walked to the hall, took down his overcoat and started out of the house. A policeman met him and asked him where he was going.

"Just to get a cigar," said the doctor, coolly.

A few seconds later the cries of the servant were heard and the doctor was promptly arrested.

LOUISIANA WINS NOTE TAX SUIT

Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. Loses In High Court.

Washington, April 10.—The constitutionality of the Louisiana law of 1898 making taxable in that state notes taken by non-residents on account of business transacted there, was brought into question in the case of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company of New York, versus the city of New Orleans, which was decided by the supreme court of the United States in favor of the city, the opinion being by Justice Moody.

The suit grew out of an effort by the city to tax the company for $10,000 worth of credits on business transacted in the state which was resisted by the company on the ground that the notes were taxable only in New York, where they were held. The attempt of the authorities beyond the state and to take property without due process of law.

In announcing the court's opinion, Justice Moody said that the mere absence of the notes from the place of their origin did not deprive them of a taxable status in Louisiana. The effect was to uphold the state law.

Drove Strike Breakers Off.

Hamburg, April 10.—Another attack on the substitute English longshoremen was made Monday night. Men unloading the steamer Liuse on returning from the ship found the way blocked by a cordon of strikers, who drove the strike breakers off with sticks and stones. One of the strikers fired a pistol at the fleeing Englishmen, wounding one of them in the thigh. The cargo congested of the harbor continues. Nearly 300 steamers and over 50 sailing vessels are waiting to discharge or take on cargo. Foreign longshoremen continue arriving here. Four hundred and eighty reached Hamburg Monday, but a great many of the Englishmen are returning home, over 300 having gone back to England since Saturday last.

Boy Confessed He Stole $1,600.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10.—R. W. Gray, the 17-year-old boy, who, on the 11th of last November, stole $1,460 from the Southern Express company at Salisbury, N. C., was caught in Buffalo, N. Y., and brought back to Salisbury. In his cell, young Gray made full confession of the theft and gave the story of his wanderings since the date of the robbery. He had been to South America, Canada and many other places.

Alleged Thief Identified.

Charlotte, N. C., April 10—A man giving his name as A. J. Southall, who was arrested in Augusta, was identified by means of pistols and overcoat by Charlotte officers as the man who broke into a Charlotte hardware store here last week and robbed it of a number of pistols, overcoat and six dollars.

GEORGIANS GO FOR IMMIGRANTS

Hoke Smith, Gunby Jordon and Major Williamson Leave.

THEY SAIL DIRECT TO BREMEN

Washington, April 10.—The committee of Georgians who will visit Europe in the effort to turn some portion of the tide of foreign immigration to the south, left Washington Monday afternoon and sailed from New York Tuesday on the Kaiser Wilhelm II for Bremen.

They expect to visit Germany, France, northern Italy, Norway, Sweden and Scotland and study the immigration problem.

The party included Governor-elect Hoke Smith and wife; G. Gunby Jordan, president of the Georgia Immigration association, and his niece, Miss Burnett, of Columbus, and Major and Mrs. W. W. Williamson, of Savannah, Ga. They were accompanied as far as New York by J. A. Betjeman, of Albany, Ga.

The Georgians forming this special immigration commission called at the white house and talked with the president concerning the object of their trip, and the general purpose of their association. The president was outspoken in his approval and commendation of their plans and pledged the heartiest support of the administration in furthering their method of inducing southern immigration. He gave to Hoke Smith a letter of presentation to the United States ambassador at Berlin. The party also bore letters from the state department to other American representatives in Europe and letters from Charles A. Boynton, of Washington, D. C., and Melville E. Stone, of New York, to the Associated Press representatives in Europe.

According to present plans the whole time of the trip will not exceed one month. Eliminating the time consumed in the passage they will not be in Europe over two weeks. In this short period the visitors expect to get in touch with boat line officials, government officers, and the various sources through which emigrants may be solicited by advertisements throughout Europe.

They will explain that the southern states are the most desirable portion of the American union and believe that through the presentations they will make and the connections they will establish abroad the way will be paved for systematic and effective detail work in the future.

John A. Betjeman has secured from the North German Lloyd Steamship company the assurance that they will shortly institute a combination passenger and freightr service from Berlin direct to Savannah, with sailings once every three weeks. This was gratifying news to all the members of the commission and when it was mentioned to the president he declared enthusiastically that it was the most practical and effective plan that could possibly be devised.

The commission proposes to bring over the first ship load of immigrants in the early fall, just when workers are being needed to gather and market the cotton crop.

$100,000 Fire Loss.

Philadelphia, April 10.—One of the large buildings in the League Island navy yard, containing the saw mill, joiner shop and pattern shop, was almost destroyed by fire early Tuesday. Officers at the yard estimate the loss at between $70,000 and $100,000.

Nicarauga Take Honduran Consulate.

New Orleans, April 10.—Don Ramon Echamarretia, consul general of Nicarauga with headquarters here, Tuesday received a cablegram from his government directing him to take charge of the Honduran consulate in this city. The Honduran consul raised no objection.

HEAVILY FINED FOR SELLING WHISKEY

Sweetheart Lewis Was Running a Full-Fledged Blind Tiger.

SOLD TO PREACHER'S WIFE

Who Testified in Court That She Had Bought and Paid for Liquor from the Woman—Fine of $50 and Costs Paid from Woman's Stocking.

When Sweetheart T. Lewis' parents donned her with this affectionate sobriquet some quarter of a century ago, when she was first ushered into this world, they never dreamed, doubtless, that this name would some day prove the most inappropriate that could have been given her—and perhaps if Sweetheart had taken her parents' advice, the name would probably have been properly applied.

But Sweetheart, like a great many more people who have inclinations to offend the law, was compelled to undergo the humiliation of arrest and the expense of a fine, for she was arraigned in the municipal court upon the charge of selling liquor in a dry county, was convicted, and when the dignified mayor reminded her that she would be required to pay a fine of $50 and costs—she "went down in her stocking" and produced the necessary dough.

Marshal Pinkoson has suspicioned for sometime that the woman was selling whiskey. He went to her home on West Church street for the purpose of searching the premises, but Sweetheart did not appreciate this action, and refused to permit him to enter. This necessitated forcing an entrance, and upon investigation the officer found several bottles of corn whiskey, ranging in size from a pint to a quart, and a number of empty bottles and jugs.

The woman was convicted upon the testimony of Rev. R. Drake, a colored minister, who told the court that he had seen Sweetheart sell his wife whiskey, and the evidence of the wife, who testified on the stand that she had received and paid for whiskey from the woman.

MISS RILEY HERE.

Newly Appointed Clerk United States Land Office Arrives.

Miss Jessie Riley, who was appointed a few weeks ago to a clerkship in the United States land office in this city, being transferred from the Jackson, Miss., office, has arrived, and will assume her duties today.

Miss Riley is a lady possessed of a very amiable disposition, which, with her broad experience in this special line of clerical work and land matters, will make her very popular here. She has been for the past six years connected with the Jackson land office.

This is Miss Riley's first visit to Florida, and she declares that she is already charmed, and feels that she will be delighted with her new home.

SLEEP BROKEN BY ITCHING ECZEMA

Skin of Whole Body Covered for a Year—Awful Itching Kept Sufferer Awake Half the Night—Tried All Kinds of Remedies but They Had No Effect.

CUTICURA REMEDIES A PERFECT SUCCESS

"I wish to let you know that I have used one set of Cuticura Remedies—one cake of Cuticura Soap, one box of Cuticura, but two vials of Cuticura Resolvent Pills—which cost me a dollar and twenty-five cents in all. For a year I have had what they call eczema. I had an itching all over my body, and when I would retire for the night it would keep me awake half the night, and the more I would scratch, the more it would itch. I tried all kinds of remedies, but could get no relief. A friend of mine told me to try the Cuticura Remedies which I did, and am very glad I tried them, for I was completely cured. If any of my friends should be troubled with the same disease, I will cheerfully recommend the Cuticura Remedies, and if I know any one who wants to know how I cured myself, I shall be glad to tell them. Walter W. Paglusch, 207 N. Robey St., Chicago, Ill., Oct. 8 and 16, 1906."

CUTICURA

Cuticura Ointment is, beyond question, the most successful curative for torturing, disfiguring humors of the skin and scalp, including loss of hair, yet compounded, in proof of which a single anointing with Cuticura Ointment, preceded by a hot bath with Cuticura Soap, and followed in the severer cases by a dose of Cuticura Resolvent (Liquid or Pills), is often sufficient to afford immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, and scaly humors, eczemas, rashes, and irritations, permit rest and sleep, and point to a speedy cure when most, if not all, other remedies and even physicians fail.

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.), (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

R. F. D. ROUTES.

Two Additional Routes Will be Established Out of Gainesville.

The rural free delivery system which has been operating out of Gainesville for the past year seems to be giving the public eminent satisfaction, as the addition of two new routes is contemplated within the next few weeks, The Sun has been informed by Postmaster Lynch. There are three routes now in commission.

On Saturday, April 20, an examination will be held in Gainesville for R. F. D. carriers, which examination will be conducted under the civil service rules by Clerk Benj T. Arnow of the postoffice. Those interested and who desire to enter this examination should call upon the postoffice authorities at once for information and application blanks.

A salary of $720 per annum is now being paid to carriers working out of Gainesville, but this salary will be raised to $900 a year on July 1. Each carrier is required to provide his own team.

Why

Have a torpid liver when Herbine, the only liver regulator, will help you? There is no reason why you should suffer from dyspepsia, constipation, chills and fever, or any liver complaints, when Herbine will cure you. F. C. Waite, Westville, Fla., writes: "I was sick for a month with chills and fever, and after taking two bottles of Herbine am well and healthy." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Prominent Ocala Visitor.

W. W. Clyatt, a business man of Ocala, was in the city for a short time Monday. He is a brother of Lee J. Clyatt in this city, with whom he is interested in the stock business in Levy county, and was en route home from Long Pond, where he has been to look after his interests. Mr. Clyatt states that the continued drought in that section has proved very detrimental to the cattle industry, as the meadows are very dry, and cows are dying in the bog in an endeavor to get water.

Prevents Headache.

Force them? No—aids them. Ramon's treatment of Liver Pills and Tonic Pellets strengthens the liver and digestive organs so that they do their own work and fortifies your constitution against future trouble. Entire treatment 25c. J. W. McCollum & Co. and W. M. Johnson, Gainesville.

A NEWBERRY MARRIAGE.

Two Popular Young People United. Other Notes of Interest.

Newberry, April 9.—A quiet but happy marriage occurred in this city Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock, when Mr. R. H. Harkness of Tampa and Miss Sarah Williams of this city were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker, Rev. E. T. Allen of the Baptist church officiating.

The contracting parties are well known, having many friends, all of whom wish them much joy and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkness left Sunday afternoon for Tampa, where they will visit the former's parents a few days, and from there they will return to Kendricks, where they will make their future home.

Code B. Weeks made a flying trip to Gainesville last Thursday "on business." That he was successful is quite evident, as he returned Thursday evening with his bride, surprising his many friends here, who extend to Mr. and Mrs. Weeks a host of good wishes for a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton S. Fortson and little son, Peyton S. Jr., drove over to Gainesville last Wednesday, returning Thursday.

J. S. Van Winkle was a visitor here Sunday. He registered at the Travelers' Hotel.

Master Burke Methvin left Tuesday for St. Augustine, where he will visit his sister, Miss Lillie Belle, who is attending school there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Frazee left Saturday for Brooksville, where they will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.

R. H. Harkness of Orange Lake was here last week shaking hands with his many friends.

Dr. E. T. Allen returned Sunday from DeLand, where he visited his family. Mrs. Allen and son came up Wednesday and will visit here awhile.

Judge Henderson visited Gainesville Friday, returning the same day.

Letter to Rev. T. P. Hay, Gainesville, Fla.

Rev. Sir: We should like to ask your advice on a certain thing done: was it right or wrong? We shall have to state it, including the names.

D F. Dreicorn is a painter in Holyoke, Mass. John J. Donohue is an architect, Springfield, near-by.

Donohue was building, at Holyoke, the Holy Family Institute, letting the work by bids, as usual. Dreicorn got the paint job; the paint was to be lead-and-oil.

But Dreicorn said to himself: "Lead-and-oil isn't half so good as Devoe and it costs more money, what shall I do?" He painted Devoe; and, after the work was done, told Donohue, saying: "If that isn't better than any lead-and-oil job, I'll make it so."

Was Dreicorn right or wrong in painting a lead-and-oil job Devoe?

You ask how it turned out. This was six years ago. Now Donohue has another job there, a big addition to the Catholic Hospital; and he doesn't ask bids for the painting, but says to Dreicorn: "Go ahead Dreicorn and give me as good a job as you did on the Institute That's the best paint job I ever saw."

The question is "Was Dreicorn right in painting Devoe when he had agreed to paint lead-and oil?"

That isn't quite all. Lead-and-oil is expected to last three years. If Dreicorn had used lead-and-oil, there would have been another job for him or somebody else three years ago.

Was he right in losing that job for himself or somebody else three years ago?

The Institute took 200 gallons Devoe and cost $1,000; the paint has worn six years, when Donohue says "its the best paint job he ever saw." If he had used lead-and-oil, it would have cost about $2200 for the two paint jobs (six and three years ago) and be hungry for paint again.

Dreicorn lost $1200 of business and took the risk of making Donohue mad and losing his business forever, all to save the Holy Family Institute $1200 besides the fuss of a paint job.

Was Dreicorn right or wrong as a painter; and which would you paint your church, lead-and-oil or Devoe?

Yours truly,
F. W. Devoe & Co.

P. S.: The S. J. Thomas Co. sell our paint.

Women Avoid Operations

MISS ROSE MOORE

When a woman suffering from female trouble is told that an operation is necessary, it, of course, frightens her.

The very thought of the hospital, the operating table and the knife strikes terror to her heart.

It is quite true that these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is the only resource, but a great many women have been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after an operation has been decided upon as the only cure. The strongest and most grateful statements possible to make come from women who by taking made from native roots and herbs, have escaped serious operations, as evidenced by Miss Rose Moore's case, of 307 W. 26th St., N.Y. She writes:-

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has cured me of the very worst form of female trouble and I wish to express to you my deepest gratitude. I suffered intensely for two years so that I was unable to attend to my duties and was a burden to my family. I doctored and doctored with only temporary relief and constantly objecting to an operation which I was advised to undergo. I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it cured me of the terrible trouble and I am now in better health than I have been for many years."

This and other such cases should encourage every woman to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before she submits to an operation.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

CITY ELECTION WAS CLOSE ONE

Deep, Interested Manifested, and Ticket Conisderably Split.

BOTH SIDES MADE POINTS

Administration Ticket Retained Mayor and Two Councilmen, but Remainder of Ticket Was Won by Municipal Club—Vote a Close One.

Notwithstanding that there was manifested in the city election Tuesday the deepest interest that has been manifested in Gainesville for many years, and notwithstanding that both sides worked with all possibile alertness and energy possible to elect their ticket, the election was marked for its quietness and the orderly and systematic manner in which it was conducted. Those who had congregated about the polls with the expectation of witnessing some excitement were disappointed, and aside from the good-natured joking remarks which passed between the supporters of the two tickets, the election was on par with ordinary.

A heavy vote was polled, however, as both sides exerted every effort to bring the voters to the polls. Carriages and other vehicles were in demand, and were kept constantly on the go between the voting-place in the City Hall and various sections of the city. Before the noon hour, when the inspectors took a recess of a few moments for lunch, about three hundred votes had been polled. Both sides claimed a majority of these, but the close and constant and conservative observers declared up to that hour, as far as they could judge, the honers were about even.

A Lively Campaign.

The campaign which closed with the election of Tuesday has been one of the liveliest, hardest fought and most interesting the city has ever known. The Administration ticket on the one hand, the Municipal Club upon the other, both announced their platforms sometime ago, and which in purport appeared very similar. Tickets were placed in the field by both organizations, and then the fun began. Meeting after meeting was held, each voter as a rule attending the session of his own club, and these meetings to say the least lent spice to the campaign and kept the interest at boiling heat. A large amount of literature was also printed and circulated through the press, the mails and otherwise, and these have kept the voter busy between the meetings—that is, if he took the time to read them all.

Returning to election day. The day opened up clear, but the wind was high during the day, making the weather very disagreeable. This had no tendency to prevent a good attendance at the polls, however, and a large crowd congregated about the voting-place during the day. It was plainly evident that the majority of those around were deeply interested in the outcome of the ballot, and the sentiment on the exterior seemed to be about evenly divided.

Immediately after the closing of the polls the inspectors, comprising D. A. Robertson, clerk, F. X. Miller, W. L. Hill and A. S. Taylor, began the count, which lasted until a late hour. The result was as follows:

For Mayor—S. M. Davis, 287; W. R. Thomas, 320.

For Marshal—Chas. Pinkoson, 263; A. T. Arnow, 278.

For Clerk and Treasurer—J. M. Dell, [illegible].

For Tax Assessor—W. M. Bradford, [illegible].

For Tax Collector—T. B. Ellis, 439.

For Alderman—J. W. Blanding, 260; [illegible] J. Burnett, 238; E. E. Cannon, 272; [illegible] M. Cushman, 249; H. S. Graves, [illegible]; S. M. Mixson, 261; A. L. Vidal, [illegible]; I. E. Webster, 263.

For Board Public Works—S. J. Thomas, 256; J. H. Vidal, 257.

For Board Public Works to serve unexpired term of W. N. Wilson, resigned—E. J. Baird, 244; W. B. Tayor, 236.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

For the Children

To succeed these days you must have plenty of grit, courage, strength. How is it with the children? Are they thin, pale, delicate? Do not forget Ayer's Sarsaparilla. You know it makes the blood pure and rich, and builds up the general health in every way.

The children cannot possibly have good health unless the bowels are in proper condition. Correct any constipation by giving small laxative doses of Ayer's Pills. All vegetable, sugar-coated.

HIGH SPRINGS HAPPENINGS.

Smoker and Banquet by K. of P., and Dance by Pythian Sisters.

High Springs, April 8.—Mrs. G. W. McCall, who has been very ill for several days, is reported no better, and the attending physicians, Drs. Hodges and Bishop, hold out no hope of her recovery.

Mrs. Eugene Gramling is critically ill but her symptoms show no fatal development as yet. The town is in gloom over these cases, as both ladies are well known and greatly loved.

Mrs. M. F. Roberts, and her daughter, Mrs. Ola Brink, moved to Atlanta this week, much to the regret of their many friends. They were among the first families of the place, and closely identified with the social life of the town. Their loss will be long felt here.

Household Economics Day was observed in the New Century Club at its last meeting, which was with the chairman of that department, Mrs. M. P. Summers. This charming hostess and club woman is very energetic in the interests of her department and had prepared a very entertaining and instructive program. One feature of it was the display of original dishes by the club members, the recipe of each being given. Some elegant salads, and desserts, with home-made bread and comfections, were displayed, which proved that club women could be skilful in the the culinary as well as other arts.

The Knights of Pythias gave a smoker and banquet Monday night, expecting the Grand Chancellor. He was prevented from attending on account of the inclement weather.

The ball given by the Pythian Sisters for the benefit of their lodge Tuesday night was a success, socially and financially.

The Richest Man in the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." J. W. McCollum & Co.

An Appreciated Gift.

One of the most highly appreciated gifts Shields Warren, the clever receiver at the United States land office, has ever received, was presented to that official a few days ago by Captain J. Maxey Dell, and which Mr. Warren declares will remain in his posession, Providence permitting, for the balance of his life.

The present is in the form of a pair of handsome buffalo horns which Captain Dell has had in his possession for several years. They are uniform, of a handsome finish, and Mr. Warren says he proposes to have them mounted.

SHORT SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE

Both Houses Adjourned in Memory of Senator Newlan.

DR. WARTMAN'S RESOLUTION

Asking the Appointment of a Committee to Draft New State Apportionment Bill—Governor Calls Special Election.

Special to The Sun:

Tallahassee, April 8.—The sessions of both Senate and House today were very brief, after which both adjourned in honor of Senator Newlan of Suwannee, recently deceased.

Mr. Wartman of Marion introduced a resolution asking for the appointment of a committee to draft a new State apportionment bill.

The Governor has called a special election in Suwannee county for May 2, to fill the vacancy caused by Senator Newlan's death.

Good Judgment

Is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby—the best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many, indeed, are the sensible mothers who write, expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Sunday Night's Rain.

Between midnight and dawn Sunday this section was visited by a light shower, but it was of such brief duration that very little good was accomplished. As the wind was very high on Monday the dust was very disagreeable, and only pedestrians who were compelled to come upon the streets ventured out.

Notice to Our Customers.

We are pleased to announce that Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs, colds and lung troubles is not affected by the National Pure Food and Drug law as it contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and we recommend it as a safe remedy for children and adults. J. W. McCollum & Co.

COL. SANCHEZ TALKS.

Chairman of Municipal Club Expresses Satisfaction Over Result.

A reporter of The Sun met Col. E. C. F. Sanchez upon the street early Wednesday morning, following the election of Tuesday. The Colonel's face was wreathed in "the smile that won't come off," and when asked what he thought about the result, he said:

"I must say that I am highly grateful. The Municipal Club went into the fight upon principles as published, being in favor of a good and economical government.

"We had a splendid ticket, composed of temperate and intelligent citizens, and conducted a clean campaign from its beginning to the closing of the polls. There has been no mud-slinging. The men were persistent and zealous, but at all times conducting themselves as gentlemen.

"We would of course liked to have elected the whole ticket, but we should and do feel thankful that we were successful in electing all except three.

"It is most gratifying, because the Municipal Club has succeeded in awaking the people, and it is expected that we will have an improvement in municipal affairs.

"All the gentlemen running, on both tickets, were good men, but a strong opposition is best in the nation, the State and the city, that tending to maintain a healthy condition of affairs."

TO ENJOY A GOOD DINNER.

There is no need of any self-denying diet list, no call for nasty disagreeable medicine, no list of hard exercise; simply a Mi-o-na stomach tablet before each meal, and one before going to bed, and it will so strengthen the stomach that a good dinner will give you pleasure and comfort without the least fear of distress.

The best proof of the value of our advice is the fact that J. W. McCollum gives a positive guarantee (applying to two 50c boxes of Mi-o-na) that your money will be refunded unless the remedy cures. A guarantee like this must give you confidence in Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

Card From Mr. Arnow.

To the Voters of the City of Gainesville and All Citizens:

I take this method to express my sincere thanks and appreciation for the honor which has been bestowed upon me by election to the responsible position of city marshal. I desire to emphatically impress upon you that I conducted my campaign not as a member of any organization or faction, but solely as an independent candidate, and I propose to discharge my duty in the same way.

Again thanking you, and assuring you that I will always endeavor to act for the best and most conservative interests of the city, Sincerely,

B. T. ARNOW.

Judge Mason's Court.

In Judge Mason's Court Wednesday there was a case of the State vs. G. W. Hart, charged with destroying a fence belonging to C. E. DeLand.

The case was called and submitted, but the defendant was discharged for want of evidence sufficient to convict, according to the opinion of the court.

Attorney J. M. Rivers represented the State, while Attorney Robt. E. Davis appeared for the defense.

Rawhide Used on Editor.

New Orleans, La., April 9.—Francisco O. Rojas, a Guatemalan, who claims to have been exiled from his country, because he printed a congressional message of President Estrada Carbrera on the last page of a newspaper, which he edited, arrived here Monday. He said that before being exiled, he was imprisoned for a month, and beaten with a rawhide whip. Rojas said that the presidential message reached him at a late hour, when it would have been almost impossible to print in on the front page.

KILLS CATARRH GERMS.

Stomach dosing cannot kill these germs; a direct local treatment is absolutely necessary, and for this purpose nothing else equals Hyomei.

The General Condemnation of So-Called Patent or Secret Medicines of an injurious character, which indulge in extravagant and unfounded pretensions to cure all manner of ills, and the

National Legislation Enacted to Restrict Their Sale

have established more clearly than could have been accomplished in any other way

The Value and Importance of Ethical Remedies.

Remedies which physicians sanction for family use, as they act most beneficially and are gentle yet prompt in effect, and called ethical, because they are of Known Excellence and Quality and of Known Component Parts.

To gain the full confidence of the Well-Informed of the world and the approval of the most eminent physicians, it is essential that the component parts be known to and approved by them, and, therefore, the California Fig Syrup Company has published for many years past in its advertisements and upon every package a full statement thereof. The perfect purity and uniformity of product which they demand in a laxative remedy of an ethical character are assured by the California Fig Syrup Company's original method of manufacture, known to the Company only.

There are other ethical remedies approved by physicians, but the product of the California Fig Syrup Company possesses the advantage over all other family laxatives that it cleanses, sweetens and relieves the infernal organs on which it acts, without disturbing the natural functions or any debilitating after effects and without having to increase the quantity from time to time.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of Syrup of Figs, and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent of family laxatives, and as its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well-Informed of the world to be the best of natural laxatives, we have adopted the more elaborate name of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtlessly it will always be called for by the shorter name of Syrup of Figs; and to get its beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing, the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package, whether you simply call for Syrup of Figs, or by the full name, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, as Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is the one laxative remedy manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company, and the same heretofore known by the name, Syrup of Figs, which has given satisfaction to millions. The genuine is for sale by all leading druggists throughout the United States in original packages of one size only, the regular price of which is fifty cents per bottle.

Every bottle is sold under the general guarantee of the Company, filed with the Secretary of Agriculture, at Washington, D. C., the remedy is not adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906.

HE SHOT WOMAN; KILLED SELF.

Colabella Was Infatuated with Wife of Another Man.

Milford, Mass., April 10.—Declaring that he had killed the girl he loved, Guiseppe Colabella, a shoe operative, committed suicide here.

Mrs. Guiseppe Polidori, with whom he is said to have been infatuated, appeared at a house in the outskirts of town with two bullet wounds in her head and apparently in a dying condition. Colabella went to his boarding house and exclaimed:

"I killed the girl I loved in the woods. I will kill myself."

Then the man ran upstairs to his room and shot himself. Mrs. Polidori is the wife of Rocco Polidori, of Stonington. She is 23 years old and with her two children has been living with her parents here.

Umbrella Trade Declining.

London, April 10.—Umbrella dealers are complaining that their trade is declining. It is certainly less brisk than formerly. The English climate has not altered, but many persons are ceasing to regard umbrellas as indispensible. The dealers attribute the falling off in sales to the disuse of silk hats and the more frequent use of derby hats, which are better adapted to wet weather and are cheaper. Another supposed cause is that rainproof coats are worn by many more persons than formerly. Women buy fewer umbrellas now, notwithstanding they risk their brightest finery outdoors without these means of protection against the wet. They rely upon refuge in tea rooms, omnibuses and the underground railways in cases of rainy weather suddenly coming upon them

Henry Clay's Grandson Dead.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.—Thomas H. Clay, a grandson of Henry Clay, and a well known Kentuckian, died at his home Monday. Mr. Clay was 65 years old and for many years was one of the editors of the Youth's Companion in Boston. He has devoted much of his time in late years to writing and had nearly completed a biography of his grandfather.

Card of Thanks.

Marshal Chas. Pinkoson, who will soon retire, desires through The Sun to extend his hearty thanks and appreciation to those who voted for him at the election Tuesday, and also to those who have supported him in the past.

Marshal Pinkoson has made an efficient and faithful officer, which fact is appreciated by the people of Gainesville, all of whom will always wish him well.

POLITICAL SENSATION.

The latest political exposure that has come to the surface shows that: Harriman, the railroad magnate, was a large subscriber to the Republican campaign fund in 1904.

President Roosevelt invited Harriman to come to Washington and asked him to raise money for the campaign, as it "could not be successfully carried on without sufficient money."

On the promise of President Roosevelt to appoint Senator Depew ambassador to France, Harriman did raise $200,000. The checks of the subscribers were given to Treasurer Bliss, of the Republican National Committee, and by him handed to Chairman Cortelyou.

This large sum "enabled the New York Republican State Committee to continue its work, with the result that 50,000 votes were turned in the city of New York alone."

These are the chief facts contained in a letter published by The New York World, April 1, which was written in December, 1905, by Harriman to Sidney Webster of New York, in which he describes his visit to Washington at the urgent request of President Roosevelt, about a week before the national election of 1904. The letter which The New York World says Mr. Harriman admits having written will create intense political interest all over the country, as it proves the statements of Judge Parker and the Democratic leaders that the corporations and trust magnates were subscribers to the Republican campaign fund and shows that large sums were used to corrupt the voters. It is plainly shown that President Roosevelt urged Harriman, the most unprincipled of the railroad magnates, to raise money to be used in New York and must have known that it was paid by the corporation managers who had evidently been given assurances of their interests being conserved as a quid pro quo. No denials or explanations can get away from the fact that the money was paid, for Harriman, undoubtedly can prove that fact by the checks which were returned and marked paid.

These exposures are a serious blow to the political prestige of President Roosevelt and will undoubtedly have a great effect on future political events.

The germ chasers of the Department of Agriculture believe that they have at last got hold of a disease that will cause an epidemic among rats. This might seem at first sight a futile enterprise for serious minded government scientists to embark upon. But when one considers, it would be a mighty achievement, and would save the country not only much discomfort, but millions of dollars annually. The amount of damage rats do annually to grain in storage, to the stocks of storekeepers and householders, and the way that they spread diseases, notably the bubonic plague, really amounts to millions each year. Trapping and poisoning do not keep them down. But when the rats or any other pests get too thick there is sure to appear a mysterious disease that sweeps them away by the thousand. The Department of Agriculture has been experimenting with rat diseases, and believes it has isolated the germ of this epidemic. It is thought to be both contagious and infectious, and if it can be propagated among the rats in any community, it will speedily clear them out. Experiments are now being made at the Department, and if the germs are all that is claimed for them, it will not be more than a season longer before the disease cultures can be distributed to the public, and any rat infected community can rid itself of the long tailed pests and be at perfect peace in that respect at least.

Success declares him to be a pretty poor sort of a man who loses courage and fears to face the world just because he has made a mistake or a slip somewhere, because his business has failed, because his property has been swept away by some general disaster, or because of other trouble impossible for him to avert. This is the test of your manhood; how much is there left in you when everything outside is lost? If you lie down, throw up your hands, and acknowledge yourself worsted, there is not much in you. But if, with heart undaunted and face turned forward, you refuse to give up or lose faith in yourself, if you scorn to beat a retreat, you will show that the man left in you is bigger than your loss, and larger than any defeat.

Abe Ruef is staggering under a burden of $650,000 bail. It looks to Abe as though the courts proposed to bond him for the full amount he stole.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

If, as the railroad presidents and trust magnates are declaring, there is a period of business depression ahead, who is to blame for it? It must be charged to Republican management and policy, for that party has had full control of all departments of the government for the past ten years and if there is any needed legislation, or any bad laws that ought to have been repealed or amended, there has been ample time and opportunity to attend to it.

If monopolies of transporation and manufacturing have been encouraged and created, until of their own excesses they have defeated their own prosperity the Republican party is alone to blame.

If the tariff has fostered trusts, that are gorged on the profits of an exploited people, so that reaction and business depression are possible, who is to blame?

If the cost of living is inordinately high and workingmen are striking for higher wages, the reason is apparent and must be charged to the Republican policy of trust protection as the chief cause.

If the goose has been killed that has laid the golden eggs, by stuffing her with prosperity that was only intended for trusts and corporations to feed on, who is to blame?

If the wheat farmer finds that the price of his product is low and protected-trust prices are high, so that his profit is little, if any, will he blame his own skill as a husbandman and a kindly nature that has produced good crops or the tariff that has fostered trusts which are protected in charging increased profits and for which the Republican party is responsible?

There is one thing certain—that any prosperity that the farmer, the business man, or the workingman has enjoyed, who receives no protection or benefit from tariff or other monopoly, must work out his own salvation, for no system can be contrived that will help everyone without everyone paying his own share or even more than his fair share.

So while the heathen of Wall Street rage and the railroad magnates prophesy vain things, the much greater number of people must be satisfied with no help or protection from the Republican party who claims all the avenues of prosperity as of its own making. It behooves such not to be flustered with the croakings of the trust and corporation birds of evil omen, but to protect themselves by such political action as will abolish monopoly and install equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

The split in the Republican party in Ohio is even more accentuated in New York, where the Hughes-Roosevelt ring is warring against the machine faction. How much of this kind of factional fighting the G. G. P. can stand without permanent injury is the question the politicians are asking. As the only way to judge the future is by the past, the history of internecine party strife shows that almost always the Administration forces have been successful at the conventions but often beaten at the election. The power and patronage of the party in power is a tremendous lever to control the party workers as long as there are any offices to bestow or to promise for the future. The question of "boodle" also cuts a big figure in the fight for supremacy within the Republican party and in the two States mentioned the supply of cash should be about equal. There will be a great chance for the colored brethren to secure their share of the spoils, and in those localities where the negro vote holds the balance of power the price of votes at the caucusses and conventions should be enough to secure for the recipients a let up from active labor for quite a time. As the fight warms up the onlookers will be better able to judge who will win out and the amount of damage the party has suffered.

The temperance people are down to work in Santa Rosa county, and mean business. One by one the counties throughout the State aspire to be in the dry column. If the question continues to be agitated and the temperance people are as successful in the future as they have been in the past, it will not be long before the entire State will be dry.

There are few people who realize the value of the fisheries of this State or the way in which these resources are being drafted upon. The commercial destruction of fish in this State has reached a point where the attention of the Legislature is required.

CONTROVERSY MEANS WHAT?

Most thinking people in Washington believe that the controversy between Mr. Harriman and the President over Harriman's alleged contributions to the campaign fund of 1904 is a part of a widespread scheme for discrediting the administration with the public in order to divert attention from themselves. It is simply drawing a red herring across the trail to confuse the scent. Nobody particularly cares whether Mr. Harriman contributed $50,000 to the campaign fund, as he says he did, or not. After the way he had looted the Alton railroad, he was well able to contribute a million if he wanted to. But that he came to Washington at the solicitation of the President, and contributed the money at the solicitation of the President, nobody for a moment believes. There would be very little hesitation in the minds of most people in accepting President Roosevelt's word before that of Mr. Harriman, and the mere fact of whether he ever made the contribution at all, ought to be easily established from his own check book or the records of the Republican Campaign Committee. Secretary Cortelyou, who was then chairman of the committee, says that no such contribution passed through his hands, and Cornelius N. Bliss, who is notoriously a taciturn, unapproachable old person, refuses to discuss the matter at all. It would be a good thing, however, for the reputation of the party if the members of the committee would for once come out into the open and admit whether or not they received the money. Conclusive proof that the contribution as well as the method of it was a fiction, would do more than anything else to stop the campaign of crimination that the railroads are now waging against the government simply because they fear the government is going to make them act fairly by the shipping public. This is not a party matter, and the bitterest party man can afford to look at it fairly. If it were the Democratic party that was in power, the same campaign of investigation would be waged against the railroads, perhaps an even more severe campaign. And in that case, the railroads would be just as ready to attack the investigators. The fight that is on now is no party matter. It is one of public policy, and the people at large will be wise if they see it in that light.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is going this week to put Mr. Harriman on the grill again. They will not have him on the witness stand, but the representatives of his railroad system will present argumemts before the commission as to why he should not be compelled to answer the questions that he evaded during the recent New York investigation. When the arguments of the railroad and the government attorneys have both been presented, the commission will decide whether to take the case to New York courts and ask for a rule compelling Harriman to answer the questions as to his private stock jobbing exploits. Whether this is done or not, the evidence accumulated in the case will be certified to the Department of Justice, where the Attorney-General will decide whether to institute a civil or a criminal action against Mr. Harriman.

The election Tuesday was the closing of one of the most interesting municipal campaigns ever witnessed in Gainesville. There were two tickets in the field, one known asthe Administration ticket and the other the Municipal Club ticket. While neither side elected their whole ticket, yet they are both pleased with the result of the election. While there was great interest taken in the contest there was no unpleasantness indulged in whatever, and those who expected anything of the kind were disappointed. Now that the election is over the citizens of Gainesville will get together and work as one for the upbuilding and beautifying of the city.

A contract will soon be awarded for the hard-surfacing of a public road from DeLand to Daytona. It has not yet been decided what kind of material will be used, probably shell or marl, however. Both materials make a nice smooth surface. There is $15,000 on hand at present to apply on this road.

Judgement Against Embezzler.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10.—A judgment for $17,432, by default, has been found in the circuit court against Gordon DuBose, ex-president of the Exaley bank, which failed last year, and as a result of which he is under a six-year federal sentence as an embezzler.

TO KEEP GRIP ON CUBA.

Occupation Will Last for Another Year at Least.

Havana, April 10—The members of the committee of insurgents with whom Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon made arrangements for peace in Cuba in September last, had a conference with the secretary Monday. Secretary Taft in spite of the requests of the committee refused to give his visitors the date of the withdrawal of the American forces from Cuba.

The committee asked that the moderate governors in the different provinces and the moderate mayors and city councils be replaced by liberals, but Mr. Taft declared that he would leave that entirely to Governor Magoon. He added that the administration was highly satisfied with the governor's conduct of Cuban affairs and he would be given more authority than ever.

The secretary met the conservatives Monday afternoon and discussed the insular situation. He said that owing to economical conditions he considered a national election at an early date to be unwise, and recommended that such election be postponed until the result of the municipal and provincial elections be known. The conservative representatives expressed their willingness to leave all to the good judgment of the Unted States. Secretary Taft will meet the conservatives again on Wednesday.

After this interview representatives of all the leading banks of Cuba called upon Secretary Taft and asked him to give them one or two years' notice before the holding of the national elections, claiming that unless this was done, the effect upon commercial conditions in the island would be disastrous.

The bankers urged the secretary not to change the present currency to American money, claiming that to do so would increase the cost of living 12 per cent. The committee of the chamber of commerce spoke to the secretary in a similar vein.

There is a general impression gathered by what Secretary Taft said that the American occupation of Cuoa will last for another year, at least.

Will Visit American Cities.

New York, April 10.—George S. Atwood, secretary of the American association of commerce of Berlin, arrived Tuesday on the steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria. He will visit Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and other cities to bring his association into closer relations with the chambers of commerce of American cities. Frederick S. Archenhold, director of the Trepow university, also came over to attend the national peace conference in New York and the dedication of the Carnegie institute in Pittsburg. Moberly Bell, manager of the London Times, who will attend the peace congress was also a passenger on the steamer.

Only One Wire House Left.

Birmingham, Ala., April 10.—With the closing of the wire exchange of Abercrombie & Co., in this city, on Monday, the beginning of the end of such places in Alabama was enacted. There is but one wire house left in Birmingham. The attorney general of the state, who was here Monday, has ruled that the prohibition tax is not in force this year, having been enacted through mistake. The new law, however, prevents all such places from doing business after January 1, 1908.

Big Order for Electrical Equipment.

New York, April 10.—Announcement is made that the Oji Paper Company, of Tokio, Japan, has placed a million dollar order for electrical equipment with the General Electric company to be completed and shipped to Japan within six months. The machinery ordered comprises besides the motor equipment, paper making machinery a water power electric plant which will be erected 15 miles from the mills proper.

Prizes Will Aggregate $5,000.

New York, April 10.—The Aero Club of America has received word that prizes aggregating $5,000 have been offered by the Aero club of St. Louis for aeroplanes and dirigible balloons. Contests will be arranged for the days immediately preceding and following the race for the international challenge cup, which is set for October 19th, from St. Louis.

Delmas Resumes His Address.

New York, April 10.—Mr. Delmas resumed his address to the Thaw jury at 10:36 o'clock Tuesday morning. Mr. Delmas turned the course of his argument Tuesday to the effect Evelyn's story had on Thaw's mind. District Attorney Jerome was again absent from the court room while Mr. Delmas was carrying forward his argument.

PRESIDENT HARRIS APPOINTS COMMITTEE

To Visit University and Other Institutions of Florida.

COMMITTEE IS A GOOD ONE

The Committee is Composed of Those Who Are Among the Best in the State, and the People Will Feel Sure of Fair and Just Treatment.

Special to The Sun:

Tallahassee, April 9.—President Hunt Harris of the Senate today appointed Senators Neel, Crill and Baker on the part of that branch of the Legislature as members of the committee under the resolutions adopted to visit the State University at Gainesville as well as all the other educational institutions of the State.

The committee is composed of three of the leading members of the State, and the people may feel assured that their interests will be fairly and properly resented. Senator Crill was formerly State Treasurer. He is now a banker of Palatka, being president of the East Florida Savings and Trust Company, and is regarded as one of the most conservative men in the State.

Senators Neel and Baker are also prominent citizens of their respective sections.

DEATH OF GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. G. W. McCall of High Springs, Much Beloved, Passed Away.

High Springs, April 9.—The death of Mrs. G. W. McCall, wife of the banker of this place, is one of the saddest events our town has realized in a long while. It is sad because she was taken from the enjoyment of so much to make her life ideally happy and she contributed so much to the happiness of others. She was young, the bride of a year with a devoted husband who was congenial in every respect, and her week-old boy is one to fill the heart of any mother with pride and joy. She possessed the fondest love of her own family, being the youngest and the object of their solicitude since the death of her mother ten years ago. Her husband's family were deeply attached to her, and a large circle of friends attested their devotion by untiring efforts in her behalf during her illness, and their heart felt sorrow in her death.

But it is a glorious consolation to her friends and family to know that for her Heaven possessed far greater attraction than all these earthly ties, and she willingly turned from them to anticipation of her home beyond the skies. She dwelt upon its joys in the few intervals of consciousness she had during her illness.

In attendance upon her death-bed and funeral, from out of town, were her brothers, Mr. S. J. Brown of Douglas, Ga., and Mr. A. B. Brown of Fort Pierce, Fla. Of her husband's family were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. McCall, his sister, Mrs. Albert Zipperer, his brother, Mr. Luther McCall, and cousin, Mr. Cleveland Horne, all of Jasper, Fla., and her friends, Miss Ethel Underwood of Jacksonville, and Misses Alice and Mabel Cato of Alachua.

Rev B. A Geiger, pastor of the Baptist church in Jasper, conducted the funeral services. His remarks were very touching and eugolistic Having been her childhood's pastor, he knew of her exemplary life, and her hope of immortality.

The deceased leaves a father, Mr. H. J. Brown of Cades, S. C., and a brother, Mr. L. Brown of Texas, who were unable to come on account of sickness. Besides the above mentioned relatives, she leaves four sisters, Mrs. Anna Sewall and Mrs. H. C. Stevens of High Springs, Mrs. A. A. Ford of Vero, Fla., and Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Scranton, S. C.

THE NEWBERRY ELECTION.

First Officials of That Progressive Town Elected on Monday.

Newberry, one of the most progressive towns in the county, held its first election Monday, with the following result:

For mayor, Justice E. T. Henderson; for marshal, H. L. Smith; for alderman, C. A. Neel, Henry Tucker, T. M. Kincaid, Geo. W. Livingston, W. H. Sealey; for clerk, Arthur Read.

Newberry is now starting out on the road to progress, and is destined, under the new regime, to become one of the most important towns in this section of the State. The officers elected are all good men, men of energy and integrity, and the eyes of the whole people of the county will be centered upon her as far as her development is concerned.

Mayor Henderson is a good man, full of determination, and with a progressive spirit. The board of aldermen are as energetic a set of five men as could be found in any town the size of Newberry. The marshal is a man who will do his duty as he sees it—and he usually sees it right. Mr. Read, the clerk, is also a progressive man, and in all the future of Newberry looks prosperous.

Thirty-eight votes were cast at this election.

RAILROAD ADDING CARS.

Superintendent Cutler Has Bought Fifty New Flats for T. & J.

General Superintendent J. B. Cutler of the Tampa and Jacksonville railway has returned from Atlanta, where he went on important official business. Mr. Cutler purchased during his absence fifty flat cars for his road, which has been necessitated on account of the increased lumber traffic on this road. He purchased one hundred flats several months ago which, with the number originally on hand, will give the company plenty of cars for handling this class of business at present, owing to the short haul. A great deal of lumber is shipped from points along the Tampa and Jacksonville.

PANAMA CANAL READY IN 1915.

That Is the Prediction Made by John F. Stevens.

Colon, April 8.—John F. Stevens, formerly chief engineer of the Panama canal, was given a splendid send-off previous to his departure for the United States. The reception was held on Pier No. 11, Cristobal. W. G. Bierd, general manager of the Panama railroad acted as chairman.

Mr. Stevens, in a speech, modestly gave John F. Wallace, whom he succeeded as chief engineer, the credit for the organization of the work. This Mr. Stevens declared, he had modified only when necessary. He said the preparations deemed necessary two years ago were underestimated, and though the working force had since been doubled, they still were inadequate. But now, he declared, the machinery had been completed, homes had been provided for 250,000 persons, there were railroad facilities for handling over a million yards of earth monthly and the organization was so advanced that it was possible to carry on the work in both wet and dry seasons. He said he firmly believed that the canal would be opened in January, 1915. He did not seek the position and was leaving it of his own volition.

Mr. Stevens asked his loyal friends not to take their complaints to Washington, but to make them to Major Goethals, the new chairman of the canal commission, for whom he solicited the same loyalty as had been given him.

Just before sailing at noon Sunday Mr. Stevens was presented with a two-volume testimonialy, signed by American and other employees of the canal expressing their loyalty to him. The employees also subscribed for three gifts intended to be handed down by Mr. Stevens to his three sons.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN THE WEST END

Two Men Dead and One Man Seriously Injured as a Result.

WOMAN IN THE SCRAP

She Went to Assistance of Her Husband, Who Was Fighting, With a Gun. Woman Knocked Down, Pistol Secured, and Antagonist Shot.

Meager information comes from the West End of a double tragedy which occurred in that section Saturday night which cost two men their lives, serious injury to another, from the result of which he may die, and also injury to a woman of less importance.

While nothing authentic can be learned, the tragedies were actual occurrences, the rumors being verified from parties who came to Gainesville Tuesday.

At what is known as Mine No. 25 near Frankland, Joe Reed, a negro, became involved in a difficulty with another man, and with a long, ugly-looking knife, almost disemboweled him. After the man had been so severely cut he secured a hammer, returned, and beat his antagonist to death. This man it is understood is in a critical condition, and is not expected to survive his wounds.

The other tragedy is reported from Frankland section also, and that occurred on Saturday night. In this tragedy two men and a woman were involved. From the best information obtainable, it appears that a man by the name of Richard Wiley and another whose name could not be learned were fighting. The man's wife ran to the assistance of her husband with a pistol, when Wiley turned his attention to her, knocking her down twice. In the meantime the woman's husband secured the gun and shot Wiley between the eyes, killing him instantly.

Both the man and his wife made their escape, and have not been apprehended.

Catarrh and Catarrhal Headaches

are quickly relieved by NOSENA. It soothes the congested membranes, allays inflammations and thoroughly heals and cleanses. It keeps moist all the passages whose tendency is to thicken and become dry. Cures colds, throat troubles, hoarseness, hay fever, "stopped up" nose, breathing through mouth while sleeping, offensive breath, etc. It is antiseptic and contains no chemicals or drugs having a narcotic effect, or that can cause the "drug habit."

WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION.

J. A. Brogdon, of the National Sign Co., Dayton, Ohio, writes under date of Oct. 12, 1906: "NOSENA is the only preparation I have ever used that relieves my affliction so speedily and pleasantly. I am getting the first real pleasure out of breathing that I have experienced since I contracted catarrh six years ago. Money would not buy my tube of NOSENA if I could not get another."

Buy NOSENA from J. W. McCollom & Co. and W. M. Johnson, Gainesville; get your money back if not satisfied. Sample tube and booklet by mail 10c. BROWN MANUFACTURING CO., St. Louis, Mo. and Greenville, Tenn.

Visited Rebekah Lodge.

Grand Master L. J. Lester of the Masonic Fraternity of Florida, who resides in Tampa, paid Colfax Rebekah Lodge No. 2 an official visit Friday night, at which time the work was put on for the benefit of the distinguished visitor. Grand Master Lester was well pleased, and made an interesting address to the lodge, complimenting the membership very highly. Delicious refreshments were served, and altogether the occasion was most enjoyable.

Change in Schedule.

A slight change has been made in the schedule on the Atlantic Coast Line. The time of arrival and departure of no through trains is announced, but the train from High Springs to Citra, which has formerly been leaving here at 4:10 p. m., is now due to leave at 3:15, fifty minutes earlier.

Just Because

Your cough is only in the throat and does not trouble you now, don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not had much of a start is the time to check it. The slightest cough easily leads to pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption. A bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. The price puts it within reach of all. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

DOCTORS MISTAKES

Are said often to be buried six feet under ground. But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overbusy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better by reason of the wrong treatment, but probably worse. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause, would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native American medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the female system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop-girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing, nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

The Street Sprinkler.

The street sprinkler was placed in commission for the first time in several weeks Tuesday, being necessitated by the extreme dusty streets and high winds, which made it almost impossible to go upon the streets. The sprinkler came as a great relief, and the Street Committee was complimented for its action in placing it on.

Superintendent Miller of the waterworks states that the sprinkler would have been in commission all summer had it not been for the extreme scarcity of water, caused by the continued drought.

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" it in The Sun.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Frank D. Irwin of Fairbanks was among those who spent yesterday in this city.

Benjamin Hawthorn of the town which bears his name spent yesterday in Gainesville on busin ss.

J. H. Knight of LaCrosse was in the city yesterday. He called at The Sun office and renewed his subscription.

For Sale—One 16 foot store counter, two 8-foot counter show-cases, and one 6-foot counter show-case. Apply to A. J. Vidal, Gainesville, Fla.

Friends of Miss Cora Wittstock will be gratified to learn that she is out again, after several days' illness at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wittstock.

M. A. Walls of Clark spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. W. M. Johnson, in this city, proceeding yesterday to Jacksonville, where he has been summoned on business.

'Phone A. M. Dickson, broker, Gainesville, and get prices, quality and quick delivery. Goods sold from Jacksonville and the West. Can give delivery prices to all points.

M. D. Clowers of Trenton was transacting business in this city yesterday. Mr. Clowers is a member of Gainesville Lodge No. 990, which is an assurance that he is a clever fellow with a big heart, and has many friends in Gainesville.

T. J. Prevatt, former tax assessor of Levy county but for the past few years located at Largo, where he owned a thrifty orange grove, is in the city. Mr. Prevatt has decided to return with his family to this section of the State, and may locate here.

Friends of L. F. Taylor, one of the clever salesmen in the store of S. F. Brooks, will regret to learn that he is confined to his room at Mrs. McGrew's with illness. Mr. Taylor is an Odd Fellow and a member of the Woodmen of the World.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stuart Lewis of Tallahassee was in the city Sunday, registering at the Brown House. Mr. Lewis, it will be remembered, recently had the misfortune to lose his father, Dr. James S. Lewis, at Millwood, and his friends are sympathizing with him deeply.

L. M. Scarborough, one of the most widely known young men in the city, has accepted a position as salesman in the store of S. F. Brooks. Mr. Scarborough worked for Mr. Brooks in that capacity for some time before, but resigned to accept a position as rural mail carrier.

A. L. Daughtray, who purchased the Jackson property at the corner of West Masonic and South Arredondo streets some time ago, is making extensive improvements on the same. The large residence which occupied the southwest corner of the lot has been divided, additions have been made to each of the parts, and two nice homes will soon be completed there.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Harrod and son, Ernest E., Jr., who have been here for the past seven weeks on a visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Harrod expect to make their departure this morning, via Savannah and New York, for Colon, Panama, where Mr. Harrod, who is a Gainesville boy, has a carpenter's foreman contract. Mr. Harrod has been on the Isthmus in the employ of the I. C. C. in the construction of the Isthmian canal, and has been home on a vacation. His numerous friends here will be glad to learn that he is prospering.

J. W. Aplin and daughter, Miss Amy, of Plainfield, Wis., who have been here for the past few months with Mr. and Mrs. Sanborn, left for their home yesterday via Daytona. After a brief sojourn there they will return northward. This is the first season of the Aplins here, and they were delighted with the city and its people, but this admiration appeared to be mutual. Miss Aplin, who possesses a magnificent voice, has been of great assistance to the Presbyterian church choir and the societies here, all of which is appreciated. Her numerous friends trust to see her return early next season.

Among the prominent visitors to this city from the North End yesterday was Hon. W. M. Blitch of Santa Fe, who came on business and to see his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Rivers.

Dr. and Mrs. E. Black of Perth, Australia, who have been here for some time as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, have departed for New York, from whence they expect to sail in a few days for Europe. They propose to take an extensive trip during the coming summer.

Dosha Burnett of Hague, who is in the employ of the Atlantic Coast Line as flagman, left yesterday for Leesburg, after a couple of days spent in this city. Mr. Burnett has been assigned to a run on the Florida Southern division of that system, and will assume his duties at once.

D. L. Graham, agent of the Southern Express Company, returned to this city yesterday from Grahamville, where he was summoned on account of the illness of his sister, Mrs. W. A. Counts, who died on Sunday, and was buried Monday. Friends of Mr. Graham deeply sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Rev. P. W. Corr, one of the efficient members of the faculty of the Jasper Normal Institute, Jasper, has returned to his home, after a brief visit here. Dr. Corr, with a generous heart, came to fill the Baptist pulpit Sunday, on account of the continued illness of the pastor, Rev. S. B. Rogers, who is still ill in Atlanta. He has many friends here, many of whom greeted him at the church at both services Sunday.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

W. M. Spiers of Newberry was trading in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. B. Hester of Evinston was visiting friends in this city yesterday.

J. A. J. Strickland of Hague was transacting business in this city yesterday.

W. J. Knight of Newberry was among those who came to Gainesville trading yesterday.

J. W. Brown of Windsor was in the city yesterday. Mr. Brown, who is originally from Chicago, owns some nice property in the Windsor section.

Miss Jessie Riley, the newly appointed clerk in the United States land office, is pleasantly located at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Goodman, North University street.

Captain S. H. Gaitskill of McIntosh was in the city yesterday. Captain Gaitskill is one of the most prominent men in his section, as well as one of the most prosperous.

F. B. Atwater and interesting little daughter, Jessie, of High Springs, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Atwater is one of The Sun's oldest friends and subscribers, having taken the paper for years.

T. L. Robinson and son, Elber, of Melrose, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Robinson is manager of the famous Maxwell grove, and is one of the most thoroughly posted orange growers in the State.

H. C. Sanchez of Newberry was in the city yesterday on business connected with the United States land office. He made The Sun an agreeable call, renewing the subscription of G. H. Sanchez of Judson.

C. W. Bauknight, a leading merchant of Archer, was in the city on business yesterday. Mr. Bauknight reports the farmers suffering greatly from drought in his section, which is the same report from everywhere.

George Gleason and son, Henry, were in the city from Rocky Point yesterday. Mr. Gleason, who is engaged as a trucker, states that the high winds have caused a great deal of damage to the vegetable crops in his section.

A. L. Stevens and C. C. Sparkman of Waldo were in the city yesterday. Mr. Sparkman, who was engaged in the mercantile business with A. Geiger, has disposed of his interests to Mr. Geiger, and it is said will accept a traveling position.

Mrs. James C. Parsons of Cambridge, Mass., who has been here for the past few weeks as a guest of Col. J. G. Nichols and family, left for her home Tuesday. Mrs. Parsons made many friends here who hope for her return next season.

Deputy Sheriff C. H. Crisman of Micanopy was in the city yesterday. He was en route to Green Cove Springs, where the authorities think they have in custody Wm. O'Neal, the negro who murdered his wife in a naval stores camp in Micanopy in October of the past year.

J. S. Bailey of Newberry was in the city yesterday. Mr. Bailey is one of the most widely known residents of the West End, and owns a comfortable home near that progressive town. He states that the R. F. D. routes out of Newberry will be establishhd on the 16th inst.

PHIFER BROS.,

Phifer's Corner, Gainesville, Fla.

WILL IRRIGATE HIS GROVES.

J. E. Futch, Just Home From South Florida, Says Drought is Bad.

"The drought on the orange groves in South Florida has been very disastrous, and I propose to be in a position to remedy any future condition of a similar calamity," remarked J. E. Futch Wednesday.

Mr. Futch, who calls Gainesville his home, but who owns valuable orange properties in DeSoto county, has just returned from Wauchula, where he has two fine groves. Mr. Futch stated that the long and continued drought had been very severe on the trees, and had cost him considerably, as the crop would be cut on account of the falling blooms. He is now having installed in one of his Wauchula groves an up-to-date irrigating plant, is boring wells, and by another season will have a modern plant in operation, when he will be independent at least in this one instance.

Mr. Futch began the process of irrigation by hauling water from a creek, but the creek eventually went dry, and there was nothing to do but stop work. The result was that his trees have suffered a great deal.

This condition does not only exist in the vicinity of Mr. Futch's groves, but throughout South Florida, and the damage will amount to thousands of dollars.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULE.

Tampa and Jacksonville Will Resume Its Old Service in Few Days.

Information comes through a reliable source that the Tampa and Jacksonville railroad, formerly the Gainesville and Gulf, will resume its former schedule north of Gainesville, next Sunday.

For the past few weeks, for some reason best known to the management, the Tampa and Jacksonville has been giving a service of only one train each way a day, which has proved very inconvenient to the traveling public. After Sunday, however, trains will leave Gainesville for Sampson City at 6 a. m. and 6 p. m., making connection at the latter place with the Georgia Southern for all points north and south. Returning, the trains will arrive in Gainesville at 10:10 a. m. and 9:20 p. m.

It is the purpose of General Superintendent Cutler to keep the service up to the best that can be had with his equipment.

THE WOODMEN'S CIRCLE.

Will be Organized Next Friday With Large Membership.

Mrs. S. A. White, organizer of the Woodmen's Circle, an adjunct of the Woodmen of the World, has been working for the past two or three weeks in this city in the matter of establishing a lodge here, and has been quite successful, having succeeded in securing a goodly number of names, among whom are some of the best people in Gainesville.

Mrs. White made The Sun a pleasant call Monday, and requested this paper to announce that the Circle would be organized next Friday evening in Masonic hall, when all who have signed the charter list are requested to be present.

A Surprise Party.

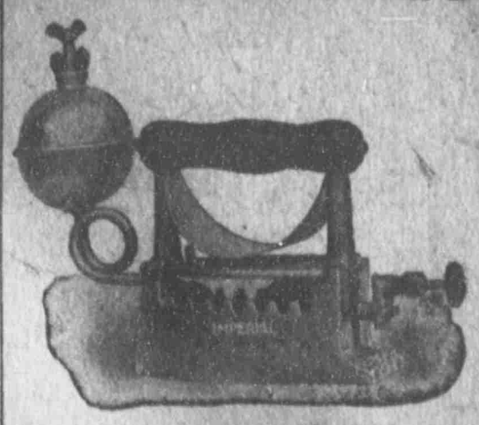
Mrs. Lula Moody tendered a surprise party complimentary to her brother, Charles Brabham, Tuesday evening, the occasion being the young man's birthday.

There were a great many of the young friends of Mr. Brabham present, all of whom brought appropriate presents. The evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner, the program comprising games, music, singing, etc. Delicious refreshments were served, and altogether the evening passed off most pleasantly.

Mr. Brabham good-naturedly declined to tell his age, which is still a mystery. Some of his young lady friends present, however, declared that they were in possession of information which led them to believe he was really "older than he looked," which it is said Mr. Brabham could not conscientiously deny.

Sunday School Picnic.

The committees of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian Sunday schools are requested to meet at the office of Col. W. W. Hampton Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss the proposed annual picnic. No definite point has yet been selected by the committee. There are a number of delightful picnic grounds in the vicinity of Gainesville, but many have suggested Burnett's Lake. This matter, however, will be settled in a short time—probably at the meeting Friday.



EVERY HOUSEWIFE should buy an IMPERIAL SELF-HEATING FLAT-IRON. Economical and Practical. It saves its cost in a short time.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

Met to Swear in Newly Elected Officers, But Mayor Was Indisposed.

The City Council met Wednesday night for the purpose of swearing in the newly elected officials, but owing to the indisposition of Mayor Thomas this procedure was postponed until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Council, however, proceeded to some other business, among which the receiving of the report of the marshal for the ten days of April, showing $121.25, which was upon motion received and filed.

The Finance Committee also examined the report of Marshal Pinkoson from the Mayor's docket, which they found correct to date, and Marshal Pinkoson was given a certificate to that effect.

The Council will meet again this afternoon, at which time Mayor Thomas will administer the oath of office to the officers-elect. Marshal-Elect Arnow will probably go on duty immediately after being sworn in.

ELKS ARE APPRECIATIVE.

Large Crowd Gathered at Club to Hear Election Returns.

The Elks' club was thronged Tuesday night with the largest number of members of the order ever assembled there since its completion, having congregated to hear the telephone reports of the municipal election, which were sent in at intervals of every few moments by The Sun and marked upon an immense blackboard by Dr. J. M. Dell, secretary of the club.

The members remained at the club until midnight, when it was announced that no more reports would be received until the final count at the polling-place.

The members expressed high appreciation for the courtesy of the management of The Sun in furnishing them the reports so promptly.

REAL ESTATE DEAL.

Philadelphia Parties Purchased Fine Timbered Lands Near Trenton.

Another important real estate deal has been made near Trenton, J. W. Patton, agent, having sold to M. D. Cloud for Philadelphia parties a tract of five hundred acres of fine timbered land near Trenton.

This timber is said to be among the best in the West End, noted for its massive pines. It is understood that it will be cut into crossties.

W. S. Broome it is understood has also sold to Venable & Co., the naval stores operators of Archer, a fine tract of timber land near that town.

U. S. LAND OFFICE.

Tuesday and Wednesday Were Busy Days With Land Office Force.

Tuesday and Wednesday were busy days with the clerical force at the United States land office, a large number having come to transact business with the office.

Among those who were here were A. J. Lynn, A. W. Lynn, Samuel C. Richardson, Lawtey Priest, C. C Calloway, Isaac Munden, K. L. Osteen and R. L. Ransome, Morriston; Hardy Peterson, Dunnellon; James Jump, Montbrook; W. L. Markham, Romeo; Chas. C. Martin and Robt. T. Winn of Bell.
